FROM WASHINGTON

A Democratic Caucus Cannot Agree on Free Silver; Eastern Congressmen Denounce It.

In the Senate Large Appropriations Reported for Public Buildings at Washington.

Presidential Nominations; Committees are Asked for Appropriations for the Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—In the absence of both the vice-president and the president pro tem, Mr. Manderson, Mr. Harris, of Tennessee, occupied the chair today. Mr. Morrill reported favorably bills appropriating $500,000 for an additional fireproof building for the national museum; $75,000 for the removal of the army and navy monument at the foot of Pennsylvania avenue and the Capitol, and for the erection in lieu thereof of a bronze statue of Christopher Columbus; also a bill making an indefinite appropriation for the purchase of a site for the erection of a building for the supreme court of the United States.

The President today sent the following nominations to the senate: Thomas S. Jewett, of Missouri and Frank C. Armes, of Connecticut, to be assistant paymasters in the navy.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Mr. Manderson presided over the senate in the absence of the vice president. Mr. Dyer, of Iowa, reported on a bill for the removal of the monument at the foot of Pennsylvania avenue and the Capitol, and for the erection in lieu thereof of a bronze statue of Christopher Columbus; also a bill making an indefinite appropriation for the purchase of a site for the erection of a building for the supreme court of the United States.

Gen. Comstock, president of the Mississippi river commission, supported before the senate committee on commerce the appropriation of $15,000,000 asked by the commission. Senators Allen and Squire urged the rejection of a bill connecting Lakes Union and Washington with Puget Sound.

The house committee on Indian affairs heard arguments against the bill to move the Indians from Colorado to Southern Utah. In the senate, today, a conference was ordered on the disagreeing vote of the two houses on the census deficiency bill. The Idaho contested election case was taken up again, Mr. Vance having the floor. In the house today Mr. Brown, of Indiana, moved to proceed with the Craig-Stewart election case and the motion was carried. Mr. C. W. Stone, (rep.) of Pennsylvania, asked the floor for the sitting member, Stewart, reviewing the case at length and holding that the house would sustain itself if it did not sustain the minority report.

Democratic Caucus. WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—About 150 democrats attended last night's caucus on the free coinage of silver. Mr. Lusk submitted a substitute resolution, providing that the democratic members be instructed to bring in a resolution setting apart a time, not later than March 25, for the continuous consideration of the Bland free coinage bill until final action. Points of order were raised and the consideration of the resolution, but overruled.

Mr. Pierce, of Tennessee, contended that Mr. Cleveland was elected President when he had a liberal silver plank in his platform, while in 1888, when he was in opposition to free coinage, he was defeated. Mr. Fowler, of New Jersey, thought the democracy of his state would be stronger with a free silver plank in the national platform. They were supported by Bryan, of Nebraska, Fowler, of New Jersey and Hooker, of Mississippi.

Mr. Williams, of Massachusetts, a member of the committee on coinage, led the assault on the resolution and contended that the passage of a free coinage bill meant political disaster to the democratic party in the future. Mr. McKim, of Connecticut, Herbert, of Alabama, McKinley, of New Hampshire and English, of New Jersey, supported Mr. Williams. Mr. Williams said he was not in opposition to free coinage, but he was in opposition to the caucus action. He therefore moved that the caucus adjourn sine die. Carried by a vote of 80 to 55, many free coinage men voting for adjournment.

The President's Wife and Family off to Virginia Beach. WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The President, accompanied by Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. McKinley, the McKee children, Private Secretary Halford and two maids, left the Baltimore & Potomac station in this city at 11 o'clock this morning for Virginia Beach via Petersburg and Richmond. The party occupied the private car Isaac Walton, which was attached to the regular fast mail. The train is due to reach Norfolk at 5:30 o'clock, where a change will be made to the narrow gauge road to Virginia Beach. Only a few persons were at the depot to see the party off.

Queer Epistle. MANCHESTER, N. H., Feb. 26.—The postoffice authorities here are engaged in unraveling a mystery. Shortly before New Year's a letter was mailed to a lady in Franklin. It was made up of letters cut from a newspaper and so arranged as to read "will you be convinced? Wish you a happy New Year. It contained a large sum of money in United States greenbacks. The lady to whom it was addressed refused to accept it, and it was sent to the post office where it was forwarded here for investigation. Unless its senders appear the money will be turned into the national treasury.

Unarmed Man Shot. ARDMORE, I. T., Feb. 26.—During a quarrel in a saloon last night Charles Vanhorn, of Dallas, Texas, was shot and instantly killed by Deputy Marshal John Coch. The deceased only arrived in town last evening and was unarmed.

GRAIN BLOCKADE.

Expected to Last a Week at the Very Least.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 26.—Another grain blockade is on in Kansas City. The Burlington has given notice that it cannot receive any more grain. Orders were issued Wednesday to stop shipping to or via Kansas City on account of the blockade. The grain, principally corn, has been stopped in Kansas City at the rate of 50 or 60 cars a day, and the road has been able to get rid of only about 25 cars. There were 130 cars at the yard at this point yesterday and the working capacity is only 100, and the cars were still coming. The cars are being sidetracked west of here and a large number are being held between this city and St. Joseph. It is impossible to tell how long the blockade will last, but the Burlington people do not expect to get clear for a week at least. So far as known yesterday, the other roads are not in danger of being blockaded and they claim that they will be able to keep open.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

Guatemalan Elections do Not Elect; The Nicaragua Canal. SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 26.—The Pacific Mail company's steamer, City of New York arrived from Panama and way ports yesterday. When the steamer was in San Jose de Guatemala the election was just over. The rival candidates for the presidency were Licentista and Barrios. According to the statement made by passengers the former received a popular vote and was declared elected, but Barrios declined to hand over the reins of government to him. His excuse was that the country was very much disturbed and as trouble was expected it would be impolitic to change the government at this time. Passengers assert that Barrios only wanted time to find out the sentiment of the army. If the troops will side with him, Barrios will refuse to adjourn.

From Panama the steamer brings word that work on the Nicaragua canal has been given up by the president, although men are constantly at work surveying and laying out the line of the canal. He is engaged in building houses for laborers who are expected next spring.

STILL WITHOUT A MINISTRY.

President Carnot's State Ball; M. Bourgeois Falls to Form a Cabinet. PARIS, Feb. 26.—The first state ball given by the president was held last night. It is estimated that 5000 guests were present. There was a great deal of talk in the palace over the political situation. The opinion prevails that M. de Freycinet, who is expected to form a cabinet, will not be able to do so. M. Bourgeois must fall in forming a cabinet. The cause he cannot agree to M. Ribot's foreign policy.

It is now reported that M. Bourgeois, in view of the fact that he is a Catholic, will probably abandon the task of attempting to form a cabinet. The statement was made that the members of the right have decided to make no further attack on the republic, but to confine their operations to assailing upon the existing ministry and individual statesmen. Senator Loubet has been finally called upon by President Carnot to form a new ministry.

SALE OF STATE LANDS.

Squatters Ready to Shoot Purchasers; Bloodshed Anticipated. CREED, Col., Feb. 26.—Creed is filled to overflowing with visitors from every part of Colorado to attend the auction of state lands today. At 2:30 o'clock yesterday the train arrived bearing a large number of men and officials. The entire train carried 17 cars with every available seat occupied. The most intense excitement prevails among the squatters who have leased under Watson and have made improvements. Loud threats are made and nothing is to be done until the matter is settled. The men who are elected on the platform, returned yesterday from Coal Creek. He talked with soldiers and miners alike and reports the condition very alarming. He said last night: "The situation is very serious. About one-half of the miners go around with their revolvers. All carry pistols and make no secret of it. If you wake up any time at night you can hear a volley being fired. I interviewed at least 20 of the business men of Coal Creek and Bragville in regard to the miners firing on Fort Anderson last Thursday night and at other times. They were unanimous in saying that they believed it was the militia doing the firing themselves. I also talked to some of the military officers. They claim that the camp was being fired upon and a detail was sent out to arrest the parties shooting. The miners say that many of their number were ever shot by the soldiers they will rally 3000 men and make a charge upon Fort Anderson.

Indiana White Caps. ENGLISH, Ind., Feb. 26.—Particulars of an attempted lynching of a colored man by a White Capping party, are only beginning to reach here. Underhill is a deaf mute and was attacked by five men. By the aid of his wife and sister the assailants were fought off until he secured an axe with which he cut down the assailants. The man is missing, and Lewis Falkenberg is lying in bed badly wounded in the shoulder. He says he was kicked by a horse, though others think the wound might have been made with an axe. Underhill is badly wounded in the head, face and neck and will doubtless die.

Important Railroad Decision. BURLINGTON, Vt., Feb. 26.—In the United States court yesterday a verdict was rendered in the case of Savage and Montreal railroad to recover money expended for repairs on the Lebanon Springs road, purchased by the former from the latter. The verdict was in favor of the state of New York, which makes a stockholder liable for debts of his company.

RIOTING RENEWED

The People of Berlin Still Greatly Excited; Bitter Against the Emperor and Police.

Another Rush of Unemployed Workmen on the Emperor's Castle This Morning.

Less Determined Than Yesterday's Mob; The Police Repulse it Easily.

BERLIN, Feb. 26.—The citizens of Berlin have passed one of the most restless nights in the history of the present generation. The echoes of yesterday's rioting before the castle of the Emperor William of Germany at the end of the Unter Den Linden spread not only far into the night, but the embers of the affair were still glowing fiercely this morning. From sunset until sunrise encounters between the police and the rioters continued at intervals in different parts of the city.

It is not intended by this to intimate that it is probable that the empire will soon be swept away by revolution. But the mutterings of a threatening storm are heard in the distance. It is felt on all sides that the emperor by announcing, practically, to the Brandenburgers that he would drive from their homes and into exile or emigration all those who opposed his will gave the signal for the struggle between himself, "I am the state," and the people of the empire who are asserting their rights. The emperor, it is recalled, at present parts of a lesson when he saw the people beaten down beneath the swords of the military police. Everything that it is possible to bring up against the emperor is consequently now being recited and painted in more glowing colors by the socialists, who are bitter against him.

The Vossische Zeitung, for instance, remarks that all the discontented left the country nobody would be left but the Catholics; and the Vorwarts expresses the opinion that if the emperor's visitation to emigrate is accepted, the emperor would rule over a desert. The authorities during the night were greatly alarmed and it was evident they expected further disturbance would follow. In consequence they took the greatest precautions. Soon after the breakfast hour groups of angry people, enraged at the treatment they had been subjected to by the police, began to gather in different parts of the city and discuss the riot; its object and its result. Strange to say, the socialist speakers as a rule advocated a policy of moderation. The first blow has been struck, they claimed, and the people should wait to see the effect. The reichstag would not be compelled to make a real inquiry into the grievances of the people. During the night, it was added, many rapid-fire guns had been smuggled into the castle to move down the people. The report also had it that the emperor was in favor of "teaching the rioters a lesson which they would not soon forget," hence the desire of the leaders of the people that there should be no further demonstration.

But these wise counsels while having some effect upon the masses, were not listened to by the excited men who had taken part in yesterday's fighting. As the day wore on, the small groups of people became larger in spite of the efforts of the police to disperse them, and it became evident that further trouble was brewing. At noon a body of 200 or 400 men gathered together and sang the Marseillaise, after which, their number having been considerably augmented, they marched through the Brandenburg gate to the Unter Den Linden shouting "Give us work or bread!" "Give us work or bread!" and our families are starving. Soon the cry, "To the castle," was heard. The majority of these men were simply unemployed workmen, but the socialists were among them in the directing of the movement. These cries were mingled with loud denunciations of the emperor and of the police. When the rioters, numbering about 1000, reached a spot well up the Unter Den Linden they fired in a loud shout of "to the castle," and pushed on towards the emperor's castle. They had not gone far, however, when they were met by a strong force of police. There was a short, sharp fight and the rioters were put to flight, but the authorities were content with having dispersed and did not pursue the mob. The engagement was quickly over and the rioters were soon convinced that the authorities were completely masters of the situation.

Popular sympathy is overwhelmingly in favor of the people and there is little doubt that the matters complained of by the workmen will soon be ventilated in the reichstag. They claim that the police behaved most brutally toward women as well as men in suppressing the demonstration of the unemployed.

It is recalled today, that, at a recent meeting of the reichstag, Herr Kharhoff demanded the enactment of more stringent laws in order to control the newspapers, clubs and political meetings and in order, he said, "to prevent the state from falling into the hands of the socialists." To this Herr Rarid replied that the right wanted to "provoke a conflict probably leading to a civil war." It was advice based upon such reasoning as that of Herr Rarid which, undoubtedly, served to calm the masses yesterday and today and which may have prevented much bloodshed. But no one imagines that the trouble is ended. There is a struggle between the emperor and the people is admitted to have commenced.

It is known that the emperor is furious with rage caused by the popular outbreaks of yesterday and especially at the story circulated to the effect that he was trembling with fear when standing at the window looking at the battle between the rioters and the police. The police, it should be recalled, behaved with the greatest brutality throughout the day, dispersing with kicks and blows from their swords the most peaceful gatherings of citizens. In addition to this a military cordon was established preventing the approach of anyone within 500 yards of the castle. Outside this cordon crowds of people were to be seen gathered in adjoining streets, but few people dared to approach very near the line of soldiers and policemen. During the day a number of arrests were made by the secret police and it is rumored that others are to follow. There is another rumor circulating this afternoon. It is to the effect that the cordon of military and police around the palace is due to the fact that the secret police have obtained trustworthy information that a plot exists among the anarchists to make an attempt to blow up the castle with dynamite.

Not Afraid of the People. BERLIN, Feb. 26.—The emperor, accompanied by a single aid de camp and preceded by only two mounted police men, left the palace this afternoon on horseback, passed at a leisurely pace through Unter Den Linden and rode around the Tier Garten, returning to the palace as he had come. He was loudly cheered all along the route by the people.

Russian Comment. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 26.—News-paper comment upon the speech of Emperor William to the Brandenburg diet is most unfavorable. The opinion is generally expressed that its worst effect is to inspire doubt as to the stability of the emperor's pacific intentions.

FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Splendid Exhibits From Australia, New Zealand and Ceylon at Chicago. WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Col. Alexander Campbell, of West Virginia, World's fair commissioner to Australia and New Zealand, has just returned from an extended visit to those countries and brings back assurances that they will be represented at the World's fair by magnificent exhibits. During his journey Campbell visited New South Wales, Queensland, Victoria, Tasmania, South and West Australia and New Zealand. Among the articles which will be displayed are New Zealand flax, wool, jars, wood used for street pavements, ores and New Zealand works of art. The Maori aborigines of New Zealand will be shown.

In Ceylon 200,000 rupees, equal to $750,000, has been appropriated for the Ceylon exhibit. Last year Ceylon exported 700,000 pounds of tea and a good part of it was sent to this country. Arrangements are now being made with the Union Steamship company of New Zealand to bring three steamships from Sydney to San Francisco during the World's fair. It is estimated that fully 5000 Australians will visit Chicago.

North Carolina Murderer Convicted. SMITHFIELD, N. C., Feb. 26.—Walter Thompson was yesterday found guilty of the murder of William Pearsall and his wife and two children. An appeal will be taken to the supreme court. The charred bodies of the Pearsall family were found in the ruins of their home on February 24, 1891. Thompson, known to have been a visitor to the house and he was arrested on suspicion. Valuables belonging to the Pearsalls were found in his possession and he was finally indicted for the murder.

Russian World's Fair Exhibit. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 26.—United States Minister Smith and Consul General Crawford have had an interview with the president of the Russian commission of the Chicago fair. The president stated that Russia would transport the exhibits to Chicago and back free of cost to the exhibitors, the only expense to the latter being for sending the articles to St. Petersburg. The Russian imperial porcelain factory is making special designs for the fair.

More Trouble in Brazil. NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The British steamer Cyri, Capt. Oliphant, from the ports of Northern Brazil, brings news that great dissatisfaction prevails among the people at Manaoas. On Jan. 31 a boat's crew from one of the Brazilian men-of-war went ashore and had a skirmish with the soldiers, during which two sailors and one soldier were killed and several wounded.

The Memphis Murder Case. MEMPHIS, Feb. 26.—The trial of Miss Lillie Johnson, the young woman who was hawking at noon a body of 200 or 400 men gathered together and sang the Marseillaise, after which, their number having been considerably augmented, they marched through the Brandenburg gate to the Unter Den Linden shouting "Give us work or bread!" "Give us work or bread!" and our families are starving. Soon the cry, "To the castle," was heard. The majority of these men were simply unemployed workmen, but the socialists were among them in the directing of the movement. These cries were mingled with loud denunciations of the emperor and of the police. They had not gone far, however, when they were met by a strong force of police. There was a short, sharp fight and the rioters were put to flight, but the authorities were content with having dispersed and did not pursue the mob. The engagement was quickly over and the rioters were soon convinced that the authorities were completely masters of the situation.

To Nominate for President. ST. LOUIS, Feb. 26.—The convention for nomination of president by the people's party is to be held at Omaha, with four delegates for each congressional district, on July 4. A call issued requesting citizens to meet for forming party organizations on the last Saturday of March.

Railroad Consolidation Denied. ST. PAUL, Feb. 26.—Henry Villard, the financier, was in this city yesterday. After speaking of the advantages gained by recent changes in the Northern Pacific and Wisconsin Central, he declared there is certainly nothing at present to indicate any consolidation of his lines with the Baltimore & Ohio.

Gladstone in Paris. PARIS, Feb. 26.—The Right Hon. Wm. E. Gladstone has arrived in this city and will remain here at the Hotel Bristol for a few days previous to resuming his journey back to England. Mr. Gladstone appears to be hale and hearty and in every way enjoying good health.

SYDNEY, Feb. 26.—The trial of the officials of the Australian Mercantile Loan company for fraudulent mismanagement of the institution has resulted in the conviction of Messrs. Finlayson and Smith, directors and Mr. Miller. They have been sentenced to imprisonment for several years with hard labor.

Dacoit Leader Captured. CALCUTTA, Feb. 26.—Advices from Burma report the capture of the notorious Bohn Minlaung, leader of the Dacoits.

The Weather.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, DULUTH, MINN., Feb.
25.—At Duluth, Minn., pressure is moving rapidly down from the north and will be accompanied by high winds, light snow and clearing colder weather today. This is what is termed a blizzard, the first of the season here.

The cold wave is sweeping rapidly down from the north and has already reduced the temperature here 12° at noon, and will probably lower it much more before sunset. The lowest temperatures are 15° below all along the northern shore.

Snow is falling along Lake Superior and rain along the lower lakes.

DULUTH, Feb. 25.—Local forecast for Duluth until 3 a. m. Feb. 27: Light snow, clearing, decidedly colder; northeast gale; fair and colder Saturday.

B. H. ROOSE, Observer.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Forecast till 8 a. m.
Saturday: For Wisconsin: Much colder; northeasterly winds; fair in northern part; decidedly colder and generally fair Saturday, except local snow along the lakes.

For Minnesota and the Dakotas: Much colder; northerly winds and fair weather; probably fair Saturday.

DOLLS, FURNACES, FACTORIES.

The one thing now most important to Duluth is that we establish here the terminals and docks of the railway lines that are to handle the vast output of ore from the Mesaba range; and that we secure blast furnaces and steel plants for the fabrication of our native ores.

The present season should suffice to demonstrate that Duluth is not only the center of iron mining but of iron manufacture as well. And if we do this, the activity of 1892 will continue indefinitely—perhaps for all time.

The relative importance of Duluth at the head of the lakes depends upon our course this year, and there is little room for difference of opinion in the matter.
The time for action is at hand, and the millions of tons of ore now in sight should be handled on our docks or consumed in our furnaces.

The iron men who are multiplying their fortunes into millions can well afford to invest a part of their gains in blast furnaces and steel plants. In fact, from a business standpoint they can ill afford not to do so.

It is to the interest of every citizen that these enterprises should be secured, and all can afford to give some aid to the undertaking. The iron developments are sure to bring activity in real estate throughout the western suburbs, and in anticipation of this there should be no trouble in completing the houses for the York steel plant. Nor should there be a moment's hesitation in doing the right thing for the Mesaba and Winnipeg roads. We can have their terminals and business if we but say so.

During the past year The Herald has persistently advocated necessary aid to these roads, but the fool answer of those who couldn't see a month ahead was that the papers were bought up. It was pointed out last fall that only one road could be aided in the same calendar year, and that it was therefore most important to act before the first of January.

Now the kickers find themselves greatly handicapped in the matter, with a vast iron boom before them and both roads clamoring to get in. Had one road been cared for then, we would now be free to do what wisdom dictates for the other.
But though the matter is made more difficult, it is yet possible that the needs of both may be satisfied and that Duluth will begin this year with new vigor that vast material development which shall have no end. If so, we must pull together like a band of brothers. And now is the time to grab hold of the tow-line.

Those who talk about any resemblance of Thursday's riot in Berlin to the great French revolution must remember that the distinctive and decisive feature of the French revolution nowhere appears at Berlin. When the soldiers summoned by the French king to put down the National Assembly refused to fight against the popular cause, the king was powerless that could stop the revolution. Not a German soldier has yet hesitated. In Germany "bayonets think," but they do not as yet refuse to obey orders. Should they ever do so, imperialism will be at an end.

A leading Berlin socialist, on being interviewed, declares that yesterday's uprising was entirely unpremeditated.
He further asserts that the character of the population of Berlin has changed very much since it became the capital of Germany and increased to its present size. "It is now," says he, "one of the great labor centers of the world, with a working population that, when driven to extremes, would be more daring than any mob Paris has ever seen."

Last night's Democratic caucus at Washington practically failed to accomplish anything. Those opposed to the Bland silver coinage bill refused to be bound by the action of the caucus. Mr.
Williams, of Massachusetts, did not overestimate the hostility of the East when he said that the passage of the bill meant serious disaster for his party in East. Mr. Fowler, of New Jersey, was the only Eastern Democrat who spoke for the bill.

The question whether the woman suffrage was approved in the St. Louis convention turns on the right of Mr. Powderly to throw the whole Knight of Labor vote for the measure. The chairman declared it carried 254 to 246. As originally reported by Miss Willard, woman suffrage was coupled with a scathing denunciation of the liquor traffic. As the resolution was adopted, the latter feature was omitted.

BERLIN IN UPROAR.

Though there is nothing which indicates that Germany is on the cue of a great revolution like that of 1789 in France, the extreme anticlerical views so frequently and so offensively announced by the young emperor, and his recent attempt to drag on all Prussia into a few authorized religious denominations has aroused very serious opposition, which inclines even well-to-do people to look with favor on any sort of popular demonstrations.

We are not sure but the Emperor might need with profit the history of the reign of James I. of England. That monarch managed to exasperate his parliament and his people by the most extravagant theory of royal authority. Though claiming more power than any of the Tudor kings, his real power was far less. Had his own estimate of his authority been a little more modest, he would have transmitted a larger posterity to his unfortunate son.

The rumor that D. G. Cash would be brought out as a compromise candidate for chief of police is without foundation in fact and but the baseless fabric of a dream. Daniel is, however, eminently qualified for the place and The Herald would like to see him get it. But he adheres to the law, preferring that his thoughts rather than his clothes should be uniform.

It is a little unfortunate that a stranger could sit in a meeting of Duluth citizens convened for some local purpose and tell by the tone of the speeches just where each man's property is located.
What we need is a more composite and universal yearn for the general good.
Let us love each other and help bear each other's burdens.

On Monday, Henry Chaplin introduced an agricultural holdings bill into the British Commons. It proposes a loan to provide small holdings for those who can make a cash payment of one-fourth the value of the holdings. Half is to be paid in installments, and the remaining fourth can remain as a perpetual rent charge.

The unemployed in Vienna are as desperate if not so riotous as their brethren of Berlin. Poor men without work pour in from the provinces. Groups come tramping in, among them women and children half clad, and in rags. The wretched creatures seem to think the Emperor will provide for them.

The officers of the Duluth & Winnipeg road will be in Duluth in a few days, and it is hoped at that time to adjust terminal matters in such way that both the Winnipeg and Mesaba can be generously aided by our people. We have been talking several years, and it would now be well to do something.

We have the ore; now let us make the iron. Give us furnaces and factories.
The men who are lolling in luxury gained as if by magic touch can afford to turn in and do something for Duluth.
Join hands and let smokestacks climb quickly to the zenith. We need them in our business.

The men who are interested in iron properties should take hold of the furnace and steel plant questions in such way as to demonstrate during the present season that structural steel from native ores can be profitably made right here in the natural iron center of the West.

Disestablishment of the church in Wales was only defeated by 47 majority in the British commons Tuesday. The Liberals all supported the measure. But a small party of the Welsh people belong to the established church.

Prohibition did not prohibit Sam Dangenbach, mayor of Gowrie, Iowa, from getting drunk and disorderly and spending a night in the Gowrie jail. He has sued the policemen who arrested him for malicious prosecution.

With President Baldwin and Secretary Thompson, of the chamber of commerce, and Capt. J. W. Miller, of Duluth harbor, all in Washington at once, the interests of our thriving city will not be neglected.

The St. Paul Globe believes in the tendency of prices of farm lands to advance in the wheat regions. The new Northwest feels the result of good wheat crops and lands are rising to good prices.

The people's party is trying to monopolize February 22 and the Fourth of July. Shall national holidays be desecrated? Very likely there are some worse things than firecrackers.

The Manitoba Free Press (Liberal) declares that "in the chief political centers of the province of Quebec the preponderance of opinion is that Mr. Mercier will be sustained."

The first seizures under the North Dakota prohibition law were made in Mandan Wednesday night. Two saloons were raided.

A million tons of iron ore shipped from the docks of Duluth wouldn't hurt us a bit in getting a government appropriation.

As Duluth grows we begin to have Chicago growth. Nature is not immutable. Even the seasons change.

A smart demand for men and teams is reported from Argyle, in this state.

There is a great scarcity of help.

Iron properties are tripping lightly to the fore with new developments almost every day. All hail Duluth!

It seems to have been the scaffold, not a platform, that our friends, the farmers, adopted at St. Louis.

Are you for or against Duluth? And if so, why? It is time to settle ore dock and terminal matters.

"Alabama." Augustus Thomas' successful play, which will be presented by A. M. Palmer's company, is a romance of the South, richly colored and fascinating in its story of characters. The play is seen for a single performance in Duluth on Tuesday night at the Lyceum.
The company which Mr. Palmer will send to this city includes Frank C. Bangs, Ocell Williams, Clement Bainbridge, Jennie Eustace, Stella Teuton and Zenaida Vaisaire.

Max O'Rell.
The entertainment by Max O'Rell next Tuesday evening in the Lyceum theater is not strictly a lecture. It has been characterized as a complete comedy.
Whether a comedy or a lecture matters little, as it is admitted that the French scholar, critic and satirist is a perfect success at entertaining an American audience. The enthusiasm that he has created in this his third American tour is without a parallel in the history of any foreigner who ever appeared on the American stage in a like capacity.

It is.
To the Editor of The Herald: Today is a good one to consider the need of a vestibule for motor men on our street car lines. If in Buffalo, why not in Duluth? In the improvements comtemplated by the enterprising company this humane one will not be overlooked.
CITIZEN.

How Wanamaker Advertises.
John Wanamaker, the Philadelphia merchant, says that during the ten days previous to Christmas his sales covered $100,000 a day, so that the grand total for the ten days was only a few dollars under a million. He adds: "I spent $5000 a week in advertising, and I pay a skillful man—a former editor, and a good one—$500 a month to do it for me. I make money by it. Advertising is the lever with which this store has been raised up. I do not see how any man and successful business can be done without liberal advertising."

Evening Paper Lead.
(Troy Press.)
At a recent gathering of morning paper owners, it was suggested that the associations are building up evening at the expense of morning papers. This is a mistake. The developing and dominating preference for evening papers is grounded in the public taste and accounted for by the many advantages they enjoy over morning newspapers.

A morning paper is stale in the evening, when most people do the best part of their reading. News gathered during the day is much more complete and reliable than that secured by the reporters of morning papers during the night. The evening paper leads in circulation, and it is the great daily of today and will be of the future. In the very nature of things, the morning press must take second rank.

Dron a Nickel in the Slot.
(J. Harry Steadman.)

Where automatic indication lies in wait for action. To which add record it on the spot.
"The one to be heeled or bludge, for the pointer will not wince."
Unless you drop a nickel in the slot.

If you want from hotel tender steak and good point.
And all the sleek dishes that he's got.
He'll surely entertain you with the best that's on the menu.
If you only drop a nickel in the slot.

In a "parlor" or "sleeper," in a "ber" or a "breezy."
Fee the porter for the choicest chair or cot; It secures you the best places, cheerful looks and smiling faces.
If you always drop a nickel in the slot.

If you want a politician to secure you a position.
And let him like to, but he knows that he cannot.
You'll never way to win him is not to urge nor chide him.
But just you drop a nickel in the slot.

For a weary, wobbling sinner, who, returning late from dinner, With uncertain steps seeks home—that "dearest spot."
"Twice" best the "Bottle Paradox" to ride home on a letter box.
Having put a drop of nickel in the slot.

If you love some pretty daughter, and she lets you know you've caught her.
But her loving father thinks rather not.
You'll argue with the "mumkin." Just show her a handsome nickel.
That's the way to drop a nickel in the slot.

You will find the same variety in all grades of good society.
For money is the basis of the plot; You can make in invitations, with the entire to most stations.
If you only drop a nickel in the slot.

So through life in all your gettings, fortune, fun and all abetting.
That go to keep a boiling in the pot; It's the coin that has the charm to start up the mechanism.
You must always drop a nickel in the slot.

THE MARKETS.

Another Weak Market With Small Fluctuations in Values.

This market opened weaker this morning, but ruled steadily and narrow. The weakness at the opening was due mainly to the fact that the market was closed 1/2 off at 7:30. Cash No. 3 spring had no demand, closing bid at 73c. Rejected wheat closed unchanged at 60c. February No. 1 hard closed steady at 87c. February No. 1 northern closed neglected 1/2 off at 85 1/4c. May No. 1 hard closed firm at 91 1/4c. May No. 1 northern sold early at 1/2 off and declined later 1/2 more, recovering to 1/2 above the opening and going down to 90c sellers at the close.

New York—Money 1 1/2 @ 2 per cent. The market was very dull this morning. The opening prices were generally slightly higher, but the strength soon disappeared and the market began to sag and the opening advance was soon lost. Toward 11 o'clock prices again rallied and at the end of the hour they were fractionally higher than yesterday. The announcement of a further engagement of $500,000 gold for shipment shortly after 11 o'clock caused some selling, but prices were steadily held, and at noon were at about the same level as those current at 11 o'clock.

G. J. Hibbard and Sol Myers, of Charleston, Ill., left for home today with their pockets full of iron stock and their heads full of joy. They visited the Masha range, went down into the bowels of the earth, saw the ore for themselves, and have gone home to load up with ready money and to bring their friends back with them. They are constant readers of the Weekly Herald, and through its gentle influence have now become affluent.

The Little Daughter of Mrs. Doherty Discovered When Half Frozen.

A case was brought to the attention of the police department which belongs rather to the humane society or the superintendent of the county poor. As Mr. Holden, the contractor, was coming along Superior street, shortly after noon today, he found lying on the street a little girl about 11 years old. She was scantily clothed and was nearly frozen.

Near her was a small bucket of beer and in spite of her tender years the child was under the influence of liquor. She was taken into the Singer machine agency store and warmed back into active life. It was found she was the daughter of Mrs. Doherty who lives at the Midway house. The mother when found was also badly under the influence of liquor as were also two men who were in the place. There was no charge which could be brought against the woman as she had not been disorderly or out of her own house but both she and the little girl were brought to the station and placed in the women's ward for fear the latter might be sent out again and not be so fortunate another time. The case has been turned over to Captain Paul who will see what can be done for the child.

INSURRECTION PREDICTED.

The New York World Claims to Have Positive Information on New York, Feb. 25.—The World this morning publishes an article declaring that another revolution is on foot to liberate Cuba.

Preparations, it says, are in active progress in this and other cities as well as upon the island itself. All the plans of the leaders are nearly ripe. The movement is started upon good authority to be the largest and most completely organized ever inaugurated for Cuban independence. There are said to be 3000 Cuban patriots in this country ready to join in the war. In Cuba the revolutionist party is also actively preparing for the outbreak.

New York has been made the headquarters, but so much secrecy has been maintained that the news of the contemplated uprising only leaked out yesterday. Then it became known that for several months past meetings of Cubans have been held in New York.

and during the past six weeks ago and it was reported that each one carried a cargo of arms for Venezuelan insurrectionists, but it was said in Spanish circles, a few days ago, that the arms were landed at Key West and were destined for use in Cuba.

R. A. C. Smith, the well-known Wall street banker, has immense interests in Cuba. He recently returned to the United States from an extensive trip in the West Indies. When spoken to yesterday regarding the probable revolution, he scouted the idea and said the island was never in a more prosperous condition. The plan, he said, was to invest their money at home and that fact demonstrated to him that they have no idea of revolution.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

will appear from day to day, in the daily.

Persons interested in this project and desiring numbers of the weekly, will do well to call early, that they may be able to

THE GERMAN SITUATION.

The great movement for popular government on the European continent had just won its first victory in France a century ago. Till that time absolute monarchy prevailed throughout. How the kings of Europe united to crush out the new movement, how they succeeded in turning France from a limited monarchy into a red hot republic, and finally into a military despotism which for a time controlled the continent, is familiar matter of history. Then, at last, the people of Europe began to take part against the usurper. The Spaniards started the good work, and after the disastrous Russian campaign, the people of Prussia rose and forced their king to accept a constitution. This magnificent popular uprising, led on by the great Prussian minister Stein, joined at last by Austria, overthrew the greatest soldier of all time by pure force of numbers and enthusiasm.

The monarchs of Europe took all the credit and divided all the spoils of the victory, but the education of a great national movement had begun the nationalizing and the liberalizing of the German people. Then, in 1848, came the great popular movement which swept over Europe, and which gave Prussia its parliamentary government. Finally, the consolidation of the empire after its great victory over France, by making Germany a nation, has of necessity strengthened the popular element in its government.

As the emperor recently said, government in Germany is in a transition state.
It is his clear intention to make his power absolute. He does not acknowledge that German parliaments have any true independence. In effect he claims for himself about the same supreme control of affairs which was exercised by the Tudor sovereigns of England. Moreover, that power is backed by a standing army, which no Tudor had.

Now Macaulay very clearly shows that a monarchy of the Tudor type, basing its powers on a standing army, inevitably tends to pure absolutism. All the medieval sovereigns had some form of parliament, but all parliaments fell into disuse upon the introduction of standing armies. In Great Britain alone, where there was no standing army, parliament prevailed, but there the Commons has seized on the executive power, and the sovereign is a mere figure-head. In all true parliamentary governments, such as that of the present French republic, a cabinet which has the confidence of the popular branch of the parliament, has full executive power and general control of legislative business.

The history of France since 1815 throws much light on this question. It has had four rulers, three Bourbons and one Napoleon. All had more or less control of the executive power. It took three revolutions to rid the country of them; for, where the ruler has a just control over the executive power, if that control is unsatisfactory, there is no constitutional escape from misrule. Revolution is the only remedy. Is not the emperor today thrusting on Germany the choice between absolutism and revolution? Unless all indications fail, one might as well expect to make a constitutional sovereign out of a Philip II of Spain, an English Stuart, or a French Bourbon, as out of the present Emperor of Germany.

A long letter from Secretary Blaine was telegraphed from Washington yesterday, in which he denies many of the statements made by the younger Mrs.
Blaine at her recent divorce trial. He considers her very much in fault, being herself 21, in contracting a secret marriage with a youth of less than 18. He utterly denies that his wife compelled or even attempted to bring about the final separation. He says his son's wife refused a reasonable allowance for their support at Augusta, and refused to stay there on any consideration. He says that at the time of the so-called attempt at a reconciliation, when Mrs. J. G.
Blaine, Jr., returned with her mother to Bar Harbor, a violent scene between the latter and the elder Mrs. Blaine occurred, for which he lays the entire blame on Mrs. Nevins. That the divorcee wife was much in fault in marrying a young fellow who was hardly more than a boy cannot be denied. On the other hand, we may suspect that the mother-in-law was not quite as passive in the matter of the separation as her husband seems to believe.

GOV. CAMPBELL IN TOWN.

The Herald takes pleasure in welcoming ex-Governor James E. Campbell, of Ohio, to Duluth. He is enticed within our walls by the business opportunities here afforded, and through his connection with iron developments on the Mesaba range will become no small factor in the upbuilding of Duluth. We have, of late, had many distinguished callers, but it is not often that a presidential possibility is among us, and we therefore extend the gladdest greeting to our honored guest.

There is no doubt of the need of strict naturalization laws, but we are not altogether satisfied with the provisions of the Oates bill reported by the judiciary committee of the house. Why should the declaration of interior blood not be required, be abolished? This provision makes it certain that the applicant has been at least two years in this country.
A stricter procedure, and the limiting of the power of naturalization to the higher courts may, indeed, offer some protection, but how is a man to prove that he has not been convicted of felony or is not a polygamist or an anarchist, except by his own oath, and how much are such oaths usually worth? If, indeed, the applicant must be able to read the constitution of the United States that would be an important feature, but we do not so understand the bill.

For over half a century after the expulsion of the Stuarts, Jacobitism was strong in Great Britain. Everybody had supposed, however, that it was long since thoroughly dead, until about 250 people professing of that antique religion assembled in Westminster Abbey on the anniversary of the beheading of Mary, Queen of Scots, intending to lay flowers on her tomb. The Royal Chapels were closed against them, but they hung their wreath on the gates leading to the chapel. England's Hanoverian sovereign, however, was reassured by the declaration that they "disclaim any disloyal intentions towards the present dynasty."

The Chicago Press declares that there are foreign spies in the city now seeking employment in vain in that city. It insists that relief is to be found in the general adoption of an eight hour day. We do not believe that any permanent relief could be expected from that source.
Without entering into the merits of the eight hour movement, it is evident that the real cause of the glut in the labor market in our cities lies in the preference of city to country life. The adoption of the eight hour day would tend to make city labor still more attractive, and hence would bring in labor from the country in still larger proportions.

The Albany convention has not convinced the silver men that Hill is for free coinage any more than it convinces the anti-silver men that he is against it.
Mr. Bland declares that "Mr. Hill has made his views no clearer to the free-coinage men in congress." Mr. Kilgore, of Texas, says, "Mr. Hill's reference to silver legislation was intended to deceive everybody as to his position, but it has deceived no one." Mr. Cram, of Texas, remarks, "It has been supposed in Texas that Hill was a free-silver man. I am free to confess, however, that the platform adopted at Albany yesterday was nothing but a straddle."

One of the handsomest souvenirs ever issued by any newspaper is just given to the public by that thriving, wide-awake journal, the St. Paul Dispatch, a copy of which has been received at The Herald office. The compilation of very interesting facts and figures, beautifully illustrated by excellently-executed cuts of public men, buildings, private residences, interior and exterior views is given to the public under the title, "Resources of St. Paul." The Dispatch souvenir is a thing of beauty.

Aluminum is disappointing its friends.
It melts below 212° degrees, the boiling point of water. Claret, tea, coffee and even strong brine, corrode it, and its production is not yet greatly cheapened.
Nevertheless it is a promising product, though it can never take the place of the metal recently found in such quantities in the Mesaba range.

The full text of the judge's decision in the Memphis murder case, shows that he grants the motion for bail not because he has any doubt of Miss Johnson's guilt, but because of her precarious health. She is held as accessory to the crime of the Miss Mitchell who cut her friend's throat with a razor.

Mr. John D. Rockefeller makes another gift of one million dollars to the Chicago University. His gifts to that institution now aggregate $2,600,000. It owns 25 acres for campus and buildings, the number of applications for admission is already large and the prospects of the new university are most brilliant.

This much of good seems to be resulting from the Russian famine that the Russian papers are beginning to speak out with a freedom never before known against the officialism which is ruining the country.

A WONDERFUL ADVANCE.

The Most Remarkable Improvements Which Have Taken Place in the Last Few Years.

[Medical Journal.]
The great Dr. Richardson, of London, has just been talking about leeches. He declares that the principal practice of the past, even within his memory, was blood-letting. He says: "The lancet, in frequent use, was supplemented by the leech and the cupping glass. It may seem incredible but it is the fact, that I knew of one practice in which the leech bill alone reached the sum of £150 a year. I also knew a practice in which a man, who had learned to apply leeches skillfully, was attached to the firm as the regular "leechman." He—dear old fellow—was too good and devoted to his work ever to be forgotten; he could make leeches bite when no one else could, they loved him so; he was known to fame the country round, and many a countryman was ready to swear that he owed his life to "Old Josh," the "leechman."

This seems absurd to you, does it not, but it is any more absurd than some things which are done at the present day? You are told that you must purify your blood and then are left free to injure and rack your nerves to pieces. Do you not know that the blood can never be pure while the nerves are weak or shaken? Whoever saw or heard of a healthy man or woman with trembling limbs? Is it not as absurd as the old blood-letting practice to cry "purify the blood" and then neglect the nerves? Be consistent.

No known remedy of the doctors will strengthen the nerves without injuring them. It remained for a discovery to come to the world that could and would accomplish this. It was no ordinary accidental discovery, but was the result of patient scientific experimenting. It came to Professor Phelps, of Dartmouth college, and after years of experimenting he has found nothing that equals it in my case of costiveness. J. B. JENKINS, Cloyd's Creek, Tenn.

I have used three bottles of Paine's Celery Compound for kidney trouble and pain in my back, and have been greatly benefited.
F. L. BERNER,
Watertown, Dakota.

As a gentle laxative Paine's Celery Compound is surely without a peer, I have found nothing that equals it in my case of costiveness.
J. B. JENKINS,
Cloyd's Creek, Tenn.

I have used Paine's Celery Compound with good results in torpidity of the liver and the attendant train of disorders.
Its action is prompt and pleasant.
ALBERT LEONARD,
Athens, Ohio.

The world has advanced and one of the most marked evidences of its advancement has been in its medical discoveries. And first and foremost in these discoveries is this great Celery Compound now so popular and doing so much good for relieving suffering and making life so much more enjoyable.

1889, given to secure the payment of the sum of five hundred and sixty-six dollars ($566) according to the conditions of said mortgage, and the same due for the sum of two hundred and eighty-three dollars ($283), each bearing the same date as said mortgage to wit, December dollars and seventy cents.

And whereas said mortgage was duly assigned to Charles P. Craig, mortgagee, by Anne M.
Stewart, now Anne M. Roblin, by an assignment executed February 21st, 1891, and recorded February 27th, 1891, in book 33 of mortgages, page 202.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that notice of the power of sale conferred by said mortgage is hereby given to the mortgagors, and the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a of the court house in the city of Duluth, in said St. Louis county, on Monday the 4th day of April, 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m., to satisfy the amount which shall then be due on said mortgage, and also the sum of twenty-five dollars,

DON'T REMAIN UNDER THE DELUSION that money will buy just as much in one place as in another. It won't! It never did and it never will. There is bound to be a difference—sometimes big and sometimes little—but always a difference just the same. Methods make the difference. Big prices go with old-fashioned notions and methods. Modern methods bring little prices in their train. Are you a close buyer? Do you understand that fractions count up into a large amount during the course of a year? THE IRON MARKET.

Stock Exchanges Are the Order of the Day And Four Are Organized.

The Market is Strong With Fractional Advances All Along the Line.

Mesaba Mountain Iron and Cinnabara Are the Favorites for the Day's (Buying).

Within the very near future there will be no difficulty about a lack of mining exchanges. Two are being made ready for opening today, another will be ready very shortly and a fourth is being contemplated. The Duluth Iron Mining exchange was opened in the old Herald office in the Chamber of Commerce building this morning. It is controlled by private parties.

This company is composed of reliable representatives men, who will buy and sell for themselves and handle on commissions all reliable iron mining stocks. Their treasurer has given ample bonds to insure the public that all can feel safe in trusting their business fully in this company's hands and be honorably and fairly treated. Parties who put their funds in their hands and feel assured that orders by letter or wire will receive prompt attention and their interests guarded. They will quote market prices on all reliable stocks every hour during the day, as also for sale stocks and stocks wanted.

The following is a list of the members: N. B. Merritt, Jas. M. McKinley, E. R. Dixon, E. B. Linnen, F. A. Root, M. F. McDonald, D. S. Forgy, G. B. Nobles, H. C. Withrow.

At the meeting held Saturday in Real Estate exchange rooms about 30 prominent brokers attended, and it was decided to form a reliable exchange. A committee was appointed to report on a plan of organization on Wednesday. The committee is as follows: John McKinley, L. Merritt, A. E. Humphreys, J. T. Hale, J. B. Giegie, W. Van Brunt and W. B. Welles.

The old rooms of the Motor Line company in the chamber of commerce are being fitted with blackboards and the other necessary necessities for dealing in stocks for an exchange, of which Mr. Beebe is manager. Anyone who wants to deal will now have abundant opportunity. The dealing today is unabated.

It has been noticed that here as in all other places where stock dealing is general there is an apathy the latter part of every week, following a reaction on Monday. All stocks were more active today. Prices were firmer and in general there was an advance.

The features of the morning market were Cincinnati and Mesaba Mountain. The former jumped to 25 as soon as the market opened and offers were made of 26 1/2 and even 27. The latter figure is probably above the market but the price was stiff and very little of the stock was offered. Mesaba Mountain Iron was sold for 17 1/2 and 18 and already the stock is being held for 20, a point which will probably be very soon reached. All the Humphreys stocks were strong and there was a general rise along the line, though in most cases it was fractional. Horton was very strong, a very large advance, and very little offered. The stock in this mine is being held back and in, any case, as a permanent investment, probably worth a considerably higher figure than it is now being held at. It is one of the favorite stocks and will doubtless go up within the next few days. Champion goes on tomorrow afternoon and will be eagerly taken up at the price at which it is offered. It is backed by some very good people, has some excellent properties and will probably touch 15 within the week.

Its amended articles were filed Saturday afternoon, increasing the capital stock of the company from $100,000 to $300,000. The company was organized three years ago, but has lately increased its holdings on the Mesaba and now owns 120 acres of lease and fee in sections to and 11, 58-18, a mile south of the "Mountain" iron mine, as well as a number more in section 23 and in the southwest part of town 57-17. Superintendent Merrill of the Eastern Minnesota road; H. V. Winchell, assistant state geologist; C. F. Howe, R. H. Palmer, D. H. C. Crawford, and W. M. Carpenter are among the directors. The company sent up a large test-pit crew today.

The officers of the company are R. H. Palmer, president; F. A. Merrill, vice-president and H. C. Crawford, secretary and treasurer.

The Bessemer Iron company also filed articles of incorporation Saturday. The capital stock is placed at $300,000. The highest amount of indebtedness shall be $50,000. The persons forming the corporation are L. J. Hopkins, G. H. Claydon, H. S. Mahon, C. J. Kershaw, Jr., A. E. McCordie, W. B. Silvey, W. G. Crosby and E. C. Jones. The stock is not yet on the market.

Stowell has more than shared in the general prosperity of the day and has been a good dividender. It seems now to be regarded as one of the promising stocks and it is one in which there is a generous amount of dealing.

The eagerness with which Chicago stock is awaited has increased today. Mr. Kinney came down from the range today and reports that the new pit on this property has developed what has always been expected, that Chicago, is a mine of remarkable richness.

It is almost impossible to obtain accurate quotations this afternoon.

The following are the results of an examination at 2:30 this afternoon and are probably correct: Biwabik 50, Mountain 10 1/2, Cincinnati 25, Great Northern 12 1/2, Mesaba Mountain Iron 17 1/2, Shaw 20, Kanawha 20, Stowell 11, Charleston 12, Horton 20, Champion 10.

"SECTION 30."

Nothing Sensational Was Introduced This Morning.

The resumption of the section 30 case this morning attracted a small audience in the council chamber, although the testimony was very important. R. D. Mallett was the first witness placed on the stand. His testimony was principally in rebuttal of the evidence offered by Messrs. Stokes and Lawrence some time ago. Mr. Mallett's testimony was readily given and was as readily objected to. During the examination Attorney Seymour, by the witness, offered in evidence copies of impressions (in a letter book of the witness' firm) of certain correspondence. To this Attorney Draper objected on the ground that the originals were the best evidence. The letter book impressions were finally admitted. The witness was briefly cross-examined. Attorney Seymour then offered in evidence a certified copy of the proceedings of the probate court of Kings county, state of Washington, in the case of W. C. Hill, asking for the admission of the will of the deceased to probate. This was admitted without objection. Frank Hibbing was then placed on the stand, and was asked what conversation he had with Capt. Sellwood regarding the last rush for section 30. It was objected to by Attorney Draper as not proper rebutting testimony. Captain Nichols decided to admit the testimony, subject to any objections. Witness Hibbing then testified that he visited the United States land office building on the morning of Feb. 23, 1889; that he met Capt. Sellwood at the head of the stairs about 9:30 a. m.; that then and there the following dialogue ensued:

Hibbing—"Well, captain, who got section 30?"

Sellwood—"Hartman got there."

Hibbing—"Will his filing be accepted?"

Sellwood—"Well, it gives him a mighty good show."

The witness further testified that he heard a group address Mr. Draper with the remark: "We understand that Hartman got there and that you got left."

To this Mr. Draper replied: "Yes; the other crowd was too strong for us."

Mr. Seymour then asked for a continuance on the ground of the non-appearance of an important witness. Messrs. Draper and Kedington objected to a continuance on the ground that if the attorney would state what he expected to prove by the witness, they would admit it. Attorney Seymour said he could not state all he had spoken to the witness, and the case was then adjourned until 2:30.

An informal reception.

At a meeting of the democratic city committee, held in the Tilden club rooms this morning, it was decided to hold an informal reception in honor of ex-Governor Campbell at the Spaulding this afternoon. The parlors were placed at their disposal and a large number of Duluthians called this afternoon to the distinguished Ohio politician. At noon dinner was served for Governor Campbell and a small party in one of the private dining rooms. Covers were laid for 15.

The dinner served was of planked whitefish and those present were: Governor Campbell and Messrs. d'Auteourt, J. K. Shaw, Weiss, Gridley, Weston, Frank and Fred Barrett, Pressnell and Munger.

Sacred Concert.

The sacred concert given by the choir of the First Methodist Episcopal church last night was a decided success and was thoroughly appreciated by the large audience present. The solos of Messrs. Cable and MacLeod were both executed in a pleasing manner. "My Prayer," a quartette, by Messrs. Brown, Wiggins, Graham and Temple was given with much taste and expression. Miss Brooks' obligato solo "Nothing but Leaves" was sung in a clear sweet voice and was well supported by the choir the shading being quite effective. The aria and recitative by Mr. Jewell accompanied by the choir also deserves special mention. The rendition of all choruses showed careful and thorough preparation and this was especially true in "Farmers' Mass in E flat," in which the choir responded admirably to the motion of the baton in the hand of the director, Professor S. S. Myers.

The Sultan is Raising Troops in Tripoli: Egypt, Possibly Tunis, in View.

Blowing Up the Princess' House an Anarchist Blunder: Mistook the House.

Hundreds of People Drowned Off the Portuguese Coast: Famine in Hungary.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 1.—The secret of the disturbances in the Afro-Turkish province of Tripoli is that the sultan wishes to strengthen Turkish rule in the province and make it a base of operations in dealing with Egypt on the one hand, or France and Tunis on the other. Heretofore Turkish rule in Tripoli has been little more than nominal. The sultan's governor has ruled in a barbarous fashion with a corps of native soldiers, who plunder and oppress the people and especially the Jews. The sultan has ordered the dissolution of this corps and the organization of a large discipline in the army to be recruited by conscription. This has aroused the wrath of the native Moors and Arabs, who would prefer to go on in the old way and have no desire to be pressed into Turkish service. There is no doubt, however, that they will have to yield as the sultan has plenty of spare troops just now to use in bringing them to terms. Tripoli is, in short, to be the Turkish garrison in Africa.

PARIS DYNAMITERS.

They Make a Stupid Blunder: Blow Up the Wrong House.
PARIS, March 1.—The explosion at the De Sagan mansion turns out to be a blunder. The explosion did occur as reported, but it was intended for another house. The dynamites had made a stupid blunder. The Spanish embassy was formerly located in a neighboring building on the Faubourg St. Germain, and sympathizers here with the Spanish cause had placed there a large quantity of dynamite. It is now evident that the instruments of the committee in their blundering efforts to carry out their intention were not only ignorant of the removal of the embassy, but mistook the house it occupied and in a cowardly and hurried manner, regardless of the consequences to the innocent, deposited their explosives in the doorway of the Sagan mansion. Nobody could conceive why the princess should be attacked in this manner. She is one of the most popular members of Parisian society and was never objectionable to the populace. Her liberal dealings, liberal expenditures and the amiability of her disposition.

The explosion did much damage to the facade of the hotel which is one of the handsomest in Paris.

Three Hundred Persons Reported Drowned Off the Portuguese Coast.
LISBON, March 1.—The storm of Saturday was very disastrous to life and property. It is reported that 300 boats are lost and 300 persons drowned. The loss of life is probably underrated. The steamer Elbe made three futile attempts to leave Leixoes harbor on Saturday and a fourth attempt on Sunday morning, which succeeded. While out she saved a boat load of 20 men and had not returned up the coast to Vigo, where some boats, it is reported, have taken refuge. The storm did not affect shipping in Leixoes harbor.

FAMINE IN HUNGARY.

Distress in Some Portions Equals That in Russia.
LONDON, March 1.—Famine prevails in Northern Hungary, and 20,000 inhabitants of the county of Arva are in a state of distress equaling that prevalent in Russia. The government will not relieve the sufferers because they are of the Slav race. German newspapers in Pesth protest against this inhumanity, and demand that the sufferers be relieved and provided with corn for the spring sowing.

CHINESE REBELS UNSUBDUED.

Disturbances Stopped by Cold Weather and Not by Troops.
SHANGHAI, March 1.—Well informed Chinese assert that accounts of the successes of government forces in the north are grossly magnified; that winter weather has prevented the carrying on of operations, and that the rebels, who are 20,000 strong, are still secure in the mountains, ready to renew the rebellion when the weather becomes mild.

RUMORED COMBINATION.

Canadian Catholics and Conservatives Are Said to Have Combined to Control the Dominion.
WINNIPEG, March 1.—The organ of the Manitoba government here published a startling statement to the effect that a bargain has been made between the Roman Catholic church and the conservative government at Ottawa, by which the church has pledged itself to give to the conservatives the entire Catholic vote. One condition of the arrangement is that Abbott, the present Dominion premier, is to retire in the near future and be succeeded by Sir John Thompson, who is a Roman Catholic. Another condition is that in the event of the privy council of England declaring the act recently passed by the Manitoba government abolishing Catholic schools to be valid and constitutional, the Dominion government will promptly pass remedial legislation, annulling the Manitoba act and giving Catholics the right to maintain their separate schools at the public expense.

THE STANDARD OIL TRUST

The Blaine Divorce.

PITTSBURGH, March 1.—The divorced wife of James J. Blaine, Jr., is closely related to the wife of Dr. G. S. Scott, of Pittsburgh, and the divorce of the latter is being fought by her staunch defenders. He said yesterday concerning the letter from Secretary Blaine published in the morning, "I think the whole explanation is only a Blaine scheme sprung for the purpose of making a hero of himself. Jim at the expense of his greatly wronged wife, I have knowledge of facts which he made public and successfully refute nearly every statement made by old man Blaine. I do not believe the charges he makes against his son's wife, because I know they are untrue."

WASHINGTON NEWS

The Senate Finance Committee Report a Bill Regulating Security for Bank Circulation.

Democratic Senators Want the Tax on State Bank Circulation Repealed.

House Still Considering the Indian Appropriation: District of Columbia Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Senate bills were placed on the calendar granting a right-of-way through the Fond du Lac Indian reservation. To establish a factory for heavy ordinance for the Pacific coast. Mr. Morrill reported favorably an act for the better control of and greater safety of national banks, which was passed by the house Feb. 13, 1892, with an amendment inserted by the senate committee on finance, providing as follows: "That upon any deposit already on hand, or to be made, by any bank, of bonds bearing interest, in the manner required by law, any national banking association making the same shall be entitled to receive from the controller of the currency circulating notes of different denominations in blank, registered and countersigned as provided by law, not exceeding in the whole amount the value of the bonds deposited, provided that at no time shall the total amount of such notes actually paid in of its capital stock."

Mr. Morrill from the same committee reported adversely the bill introduced by Mr. George, of Mississippi, to repeal the international revenue tax on the circulation of bank notes issued under the state authority, but with a reservation permitting the bill thus adversely reported to be placed upon the calendar so as to be called for for action. He also reported adversely and asked the indefinite postponement of a bill introduced by Mr. Harris, of Tennessee, "to repeal all acts and parts of acts discriminating in taxation against the circulating notes of state banks." Also a bill with a like title, offered by Mr. Vance, of North Carolina. Mr. Harris, a member of the committee on finance, desired to state that the action of the committee on the question of national bank circulation was not unanimous, but the minority of the committee was satisfied by the placing of one of the bills on the calendar which abolished the discrimination existing against state bank circulation.

The discussion of the Idaho contested election case was resumed.

In the house the committee arose and Mr. Dickey, of Idaho, reported the District of Columbia appropriation bill, which was referred to the committee of the whole. The bill appropriates $1,875,555 a reduction over last year of $20,500.

The committee resumed its session on the Indian appropriation.

The New York Sun Attacks the Chicago Scheme for Getting National Aid.
NEW YORK, March 1.—The Sun has the following editorial, headed "More About Progressive Bunco." First move: "Give us a chance to hold this World's fair, and we will astonish the universe. It shall not cost the government one dollar beyond the government's own proper expenditure as an exhibitor. Chicago stands ready to put up $25,000,000 if necessary."

Second move: "Can it be that this great nation of 65,000,000 souls, having added upon Chicago a colossal national enterprise much against her will, intends to let her carry the burden alone? It will be made a very creditable show, provided the government will accommodate our self-sacrificing hustlers with a trifling loan of $5,000,000 or so."

Third move: "If—in your eyes, do you take us for philanthropists? Put up your money for your show or it shall go to thunder and you will be disgraced."

QUIET IN INDIANAPOLIS.

Strikers Got a Receiver of the Car Company and Then Rm the Cars.
INDIANAPOLIS, March 1.—Today is one of calm in the street car strike. The strikers and their sympathizers at an early hour this morning performed a great legal coup in filing a suit in which N. F. Fishback, master-in-chancery of the United States court, is plaintiff, and in which the appointment of a receiver is asked for. At 1 o'clock this afternoon Judge Taylor appointed W. T. Steel receiver, who gave bond in the penalty of $100,000. The receiver was able to gain possession of only one car, and from this he started 12 cars, manned by strikers, which were received with wild cheers and decorated with flags. Later a procession of 2000 laborers, paraded the streets, headed by the Street Car Brotherhood, and were received with cheers on route. The street car company tried to evade the receivership by taking an appeal to the general session this morning, which, if granted, would have vacated the receivership; but the plaintiff, Fishback, charged the company with contempt in refusing to surrender its cars, and Judge Taylor ordered them to be purged of contempt at once. The company is checked now, and all proceedings in court have been continued until 2 o'clock. It appears that the company will have to surrender to the receiver or else President Frenzel will stand committed to jail.

The case of the United States in the hands of Professors Merriam and Mendenhall will be prepared with the fullest possible knowledge on the subject.

The Weather.
U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, DULUTH, MINN.
March 1.—(General.) Fair, weather prevailing in the Ohio valley, where a storm is now central. Another storm center is over Northern Montana and may develop energy at any time and move west.

Such changes in temperature have taken place during the night. The lowest is at St. Louis, the highest 28° at Helena.

Although it is expected that fair weather will prevail until tomorrow night, it depends altogether on the movement of the Montana storm.
The lightest temperature yesterday was 22°, the lowest last night 12°.

Duluth, March 1.—Local forecast for Duluth until 8 a. m. March 2: Fair, slightly warmer on Wednesday night.

R. H. HARRISON,
Observer.

Wednesday, March 1.—Forecast till 8 a. m. ing; warm; Wednesday: southerly winds.

For Minnesota: Fair, weather prevailing; southerly winds; southerly winds;

For North Dakota: Light local snows; warmer; southerly winds.

M. R. HARRISON.

After an illness of many weeks beginning with the grip, but later complicated with other troubles, Matthew Blaine Harrison died at the Spaulding hotel last night. Mrs. Harrison, who was in Richmond, Va., for the winter, returned to Duluth a month or two ago when his sickness seemed likely to be protracted, and was with her husband when he died.

Mr. Harrison was a native Virginian, and was related to the old Harrison family from which the President also sprang. Though too young to participate in the war between the states, he was not too young to suffer from it, and as a result he began life poor. He found the South impoverished by the civil strife, with little to offer the poor youth whose estates had been destroyed, and so, laying aside all sectional feelings, if, indeed, he had ever possessed any, he went into the land of the conquerors and made for himself a mark among them.

He had been on the Pacific coast and for a short time was in St. Paul before coming to Duluth six years ago. Though he had educated himself for the bar he soon joined the order of city builders in the West, and through his personal foresight backed by the confidence of his Virginia friends he amassed for himself and them quite princely fortunes.

Mr. Harrison's life has shown the remarkable capabilities of the young men of the South and has done much to bring others here and gain for them the just recognition of their worth. Having none of the sectional feeling which too frequently distinguishes men from different sides of the old dividing line, he was too much engaged in his business achievements to waste regrets over the results of the war though himself a victim of its remorseless work.

In his death Duluth loses a loyal and progressive citizen, whose untiring energies have done much for her in the past and promised far more for the future.
Nor was his influence limited to Duluth alone, for he was known throughout the Northwest, was appointed World's fair commissioner for Minnesota by Gov.
Merriman, and was gaining a very wide acquaintance among men of national reputation as statesmen and financiers.

Though ambitious, he was modest and unassuming, and took more pleasure in doing a generous act to some humble friend than in adding a few thousands to his bank account. Many memories of this kind will be treasured now that he is gone, and it is a sufficient tribute to say he loved kind deeds.

THE SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.
The many important decisions handed down in the United States Supreme court, yesterday, will tend on the whole to simplify the issues of the coming political campaign. The right of the speaker of the recent house of representatives to count members present, but not answering to their names, in order to complete a quorum, is affirmed. Such has heretofore been the rule in many state legislatures, and in certain parliamentary bodies abroad, and the change of practice is one any house has the right to make for itself. Much party heat was aroused at the time, but the new rule had a good deal of common sense behind it.

The republicans are entitled to such credit as results from the decision that the McKinley tariff is constitutional. It has been strongly urged that the recipi-ency clauses of the bill give the President a power which is essentially legislative and not administrative. To a minority of the court this objection seemed well taken, but it is overruled by the majority. The omission of an important clause in engrossing is also held not to invalidate the whole bill. The power of congress to offer bounties for the production of sugar is also affirmed.

The decision of the Bering sea case in opposition to the British claim has reference, as we understand it, only to the jurisdiction of the Alaska court in which the action complained of was taken. It simply decides that we had not blun-dered in the application of our own principles. It has the effect of clearing the way for a settlement of our difficulties with Great Britain by agreement or arbitration. Everyone was delighted to learn also by yesterday's telegrams that an agreement has been reached between the two governments.

These decisions on the tariff bill settle its constitutionality and leave only the question of its expediency. That will probably be the great issue before the people next fall and the more squarely it is presented and the more fairly it is fought out the better will it be for the people of the great republic.

THE BLAINE FAMILY MATTER.

The Blaine family affair is becoming more and more embittered as the parties recriminate in the papers. On Sunday Secretary Blaine issued a long telegraphic statement setting forth the Blaine view of the case. He denies many of the statements made by the younger Mrs. Blaine at her recent divorce trial. He considers her very much in fault, being herself 21, in contracting a secret marriage with a youth of less than 18. He utterly denies that his wife compelled, or even attempted to bring about, the final separation. He says his son's wife refused a reasonable allowance for their support at Augusta, and refused to stay there on any consideration. He also declares that, at the time Mrs. J. G. Blaine, Jr., returned under advice of her lawyers to Bar Harbor, her mother, Mrs. Nevins, attacked the elder Mrs. Blaine with the most violent language.

In a telegram published yesterday, Mrs. Nevins not only denies Mr. Blaine's statement, but declares that in the interview with Mrs. Blaine, senior, the latter became uncontrollably violent and finally turned her and her daughter out of the house. That Mrs. J. G. Blaine, Jr., was much to blame in secretly marrying a young fellow who was hardly more than a boy, cannot be denied. On the other hand, we may suspect that the mother-in-law was not quite as passive in the matter of the separation as her husband seems to believe.

EARLY SHOCKED.
(Pioneer Press.)
The association, even in a newspaper paragraph, of such women as Miss Willard and Lady Somerset with such a man as Ignatius Donnelly is shocking. That two women who are working devotedly, if sometimes mistakenly, for the improvement of their fellow, should be fair to attach their reputation to a platform controverted and denounced by a political demagogue of most unscrupulous fame, is a false note struck, to the pain and chagrin of all who have at heart either the cause for which these women are working, or the due womanhood which gives to the cause a parity of association that it could not win from the direction of men.

Miss Willard, as President of the Women's National Christian Temperance Association, and as a woman suffragist was properly desirous of obtaining the recognition of temperance and woman suffrage at the St. Louis convention. She, in part succeeded.

There ever a great meeting in this country, political or even religious, at which demagogues were not present, and, if present, at which they have not been more or less prominent? And does the presence of a demagogue at any such meeting make the presence of any woman improper? When Anna Dickinson was making the republican platform ring with her eloquent appeals, was the demagogue always absent or even silent?

It would strike us that personal hatred of Ignatius Donnelly inspired the article from which the foregoing is an extract rather than solicitude for Miss Willard or Lady Somerset.

MAYOR D'ARTEMUS.
Under the provisions of the city charter the new mayor and aldermen take office today, the first Tuesday in March.
The Herald did some work to bring about the changes that occur this morning, and has as yet no cause to modify its expressed campaign belief that Mayor d'Artemus would give us a wise and able administration. We hope that none but good appointments will be made, and surely with the material at hand there can be no excuse for the other sort. Only a comparative few can enjoy the spoils of office, and the general public demands what is the right and expect good government. Duluth affords an opportunity for the democracy to demonstrate its right to rule, and any other course can prove but suicidal. Much has been expected of the new administration, and The Herald expects to chronicle its fulfillment.

A Lumberman's Rendezvous.
This term might be applied to Stevens Point, located on the Wisconsin Central lines, at the gateway to the vast forest region which extends North to Lake Superior, a distance of 200 miles without a break, on account of its vast lumber interests. The Wisconsin river to which the lumbermen have given the familiar and somewhat affectionate title of "Old Wisconsin," not alone acts as a lumber feeder to the city by furnishing through its numerous tributaries an outlet for thousands of acres of pine in the upper country, but it furnishes a water power that is second only to that of Neenah
and Menasha, which cities are also located on the "Central." Millions of feet of lumber are cut every year, giving employment to hundreds of men. In addition to the lumber trade, it has numerous other manufactures; it is here where the large car shops of the Wisconsin Central lines are located.

of them to agree not to plot treason as heretofore!

An Arkansas judge recently reminded the grand jury he was charging that of 5906 persons concerned in murders in this country in 1891, only 128 were executed, while 105 were lynched. The only real excuse for the lynching atrocities so frequently practiced in that state of late is that of indifference, use of money, and weak sentimentalism murderers so often escape justice by law. Still that is a mighty poor excuse for the people of Arkansas at large.

Emin Pasha's last letter from Central Africa tells the same old story of the horrible atrocities practiced by the Arab slave traders. Mahomedanism still seems bound to hold fast to its "twin relies of barbarism—polygamy and slavery."

Max O'Rell, who comes to the Lyceum tonight says: "When I look at you as a whole, weak, sentimental you've accomplished in 100 years of national life, I wonder that the word 'impossible' is left in your dictionaries. In fifty years you'll outstrip Europe in everything, but, perhaps, the fine arts."

Happy country, where you rely on your fertile and imaginative journalists for your sensations, while all Europe is sleeping on its arms, spending over $1-000,000,000 a year in standing armies, wondering at what time 3,000,000 of her sons will spring at each other's throats at the nod of two or three kings or em-perors.

"You don't live; you camp; you bivouac; you are too wealthy. In France there are no wealthy persons, but each has something. Not so Americans and to them I give this advice: Be successful as much as you can; make money, but be happy; be happy and live long, for you will never have another chance."

DON'T REMAIN UNDER THE DELUSION that money will buy just as much in one place as in another. It won't, it never did and it never will. There is bound to be a difference—sometimes big and sometimes little, but always a difference just the same. Methods make the difference. Big methods go with old-fashioned notions; modern methods bring little prices in their train. Are you a close buyer? Do you understand that fractions count up into a large amount during the course of a year? If you have that in mind when you buy, we have that in mind when we sell. That is the way we are selling our

It Was a Success.
The entertainment at the Second Presbyterian church last night was a great success. All the performers were heartily applauded. Miss Beckie McKenzie, Professor Rudolph and Mrs. Findley were called back.

Mr. Guy Williams as violinist proved himself an exceptionally fine player. The novelty of the evening was a piano and drum duet by Miss Fay Hood and John Hood.

The young man, however, besides playing by an ingenious contrivance both tenor and bass drum, played also the triangle and two or three other minor instruments in turns or together.

Miss Mary Linthwaite, Mrs. Hopkins and Miss Belle Hopkins were highly appreciated in their performances. The male quartet rendered both the opening and closing pieces of the evening.

The last of these Monday evening entertainments will be given next Monday night at Bethany chapel by Rev. C. C. Salter with his stereoscopic, "Little Nell," of Dickens' "Old Curiosity Shop," will be read and illustrated.

An exceptionally strong bill has been provided for this week by the management of the Parlor. Every feature of the program is novel and pleasing.

LOYAL DULUTHIAN DEAD

M. B. Harrison, King of the City Builders, Passed Away at the Spalding Hotel Last Night.

Bright's Disease, Aggravated by Grip, Does Its Work, and Death Claims Him for Her Own.

The Remains Leave Today for Richmond to be Buried in the Beautiful Hollywood Cemetery.

After an illness of two months, which at first seemed only a case common of the grip, Matthew Bland Harrison died in his room at the Spalding hotel at 8 o'clock last night. Two years ago physicians discovered that he was troubled with Bright's disease, and it is this dread visitor that claims a remorseless victory.

Mrs. Harrison was in Richmond for the winter when her husband was first taken ill, but arrived here Feb. 5 and has been a watchful attendant at his bedside, their only child, Louise, aged 3, being left in Richmond with Mrs. Harrison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Henry.

Mrs. Harrison and E. H. Hinton, in charge of the remains, left for Richmond at 4:30 this afternoon, on the Omaha road, and will be met in Chicago by Mrs. Harrison's father. The funeral service will be held in Richmond on Friday of this week and the body placed at rest in Hollywood cemetery. Mr. Harrison left a will making his wife sole executrix of his estate, and she, although making her future home with her parents in Richmond, will, of necessity, be much in Duluth.

Mr. Harrison, whom some Duluthians have aptly called "the king of the boomers," was born in Petersburg, Va., April 24, 1834, and is therefore nearly 58 years of age. His father died when he was young, but his mother and a sister are living in Richmond. He lived at Petersburg during boyhood, studying in the preparatory school there, and afterwards took a collegiate course in the University of Virginia at Charlottesville. He then taught a private school in Richmond, at the same time studying law, but afterwards took a regular law course, receiving a diploma from the Richmond college.

In 1853 he went to the Pacific coast and looked over the country, spending two years there, mostly at Sprague and Spokane. Then in 1855 he located in St. Paul and entered the real estate business with Major Handley, but soon turned his thoughts to Duluth and came permanently among us in May, 1856. He was very successful from the start, and within six months after his arrival here had $5,000,000 of Virginia capital back of his realty investments. On October 27, 1886, he was married at Richmond to the wife, nee Miss Henry, who, with her little daughter Louise, survives him.

The people of Duluth mourn today the death of one who was constant in his devotion to their city and tireless in the advocacy of her higher claims. Where there was work for her to do he never faltered. He was generous and affable to all, and he didn't literally love his enemies; he had no time nor disposition to hate them. He amassed a fortune here, but has been called away before enjoying its full enjoyment. He never held political office, unless that of World's fair commissioner for Minnesota can be called such, being too much engrossed in the work of building Duluth to think of other things. But in his private life he will be deeply mourned by more states than one. Flags over the board of trade and several other buildings in Duluth are at half mast as a tribute of respect to him today, and those who have known him in his native state will receive him back with glad hearts and home and cherish his memory though his presence is no more.

DOMESTIC-HUNTRESS.

A Very Pretty Wedding Celebrated at Noon Today.

Society people were out in force to witness the wedding of Miss Natalie Dowse and Mr. Fred Huntress, which took place at noon today. The ceremony was performed at Pilgrim congregational church, and was informal in so far as that there had been no church invitations and no adherents in attendance. The audience room, which is a very large one, was entirely filled, and in the main the people present were those who constitute the society element of Duluth. It was just 12 o'clock when Signor Sala, who presided at the organ, began to play, and very shortly the notes changed into a march, as Rev. Mr. Salter, who performed the ceremony, appeared at the pulpit, and the groom, accompanied by W. B. Silvey, entered by the side door from the vestry. The rest of the wedding party entered from the rear of the church. The groomsmen were Messrs. Brooks, Meyerson and Farrington. After them came the mother and father of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dowse, and after them the bride herself accompanied by her maids, Misses Munger, Simonds, Bailey and Miller, all in becoming and harmonizing street costumes. The train, though led into a self-accompanied as Rev. Mr. Salter began the words of the episcopal service and the soft tones of the organ gave added solemnity to the impressive words of the ritual. The service was completed by a prayer from Rev. E. M. Noyes, the music changed to the familiar march of Mendelssohn and the prettiest wedding that Duluth has seen this season. The music, though the ceremony a reception and breakfast were held at the home of the bride's parents on West Fourth street. The many friends of friends and relatives were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Huntress left on the Omaha this afternoon for Chicago on their wedding trip. Miss Dowse as one of the younger element in society has been very popular and has now many friends who wish her all joy and happiness in her new life.

THE IRON MARKET.
Stocks Uncertain But Prices Are Firm With Fractional Advances.

The condition of the stock market this morning was a little unsettled, but there was considerable activity and in the main fractional advances. It was reported on the street that the market had already done so or would do so today.

The strongest stock this morning was Cincinnati, which has gained in favor this week steadily. It was quoted today at 26 1/2 to 26 3/4. Horton was not so active, and in the blackboard quotations had fallen off to 17 1/2, though sales at a considerably higher price were reported.

The Vulcan Iron company filed amended articles yesterday. The capital stock is $1,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares, and the incorporators are Faye Walker, Agnes H. Morris, Mary A. Morris and Charles F. Munns, of Duluth, O., and Robert H. Harris, of Duluth.

At a meeting to be held this evening some change in the constitution of the organization of the Vermilion Iron company. It is stocked at $100,000. The officers are: President, W. H. Kingman; vice presidents A. L. Kingman and B. G. Segog; secretary, F. W. Devey; treasurer, T. J. Johns. The directors are: A. H. Smallwood, A. H. Holgate, F. W. Devey, G. T. Johns, W. Kingman, S. A. Batcher, and C. A. Batcher. It has properties on the Mesaba and Vermilion and will put some of its stock on the market soon.

The Champion stock went on today and a considerable quantity of it was quickly taken up. Only a very small amount of it is offered and it will probably go higher soon.

The Horton people have begun development and a crew of men are now at work. It is already established that the company have valuable property and the prospects are better as work goes on. At the Champion, too, development is going on and a crew of men under the charge of Mr. Howe, are pushing the work as fast as possible. The Stowell company is also prospecting and has a diamond drill at work. The Ohio company, at a meeting held yesterday afternoon, decided to put some of their stock on the market but it is not offered yet.

There will be two excursions to the range this week, one to be given by A. Humphreys and by W. H. Fisher. Both will be well attended as the number desiring to visit the range is constantly increasing.

The Mallman mine, the pioneer of the Mesaba range, has purchased a complete equipment of machinery and will resume work this week on an extensive scale with a view to making a considerable output this year. On account of the dull iron market the price of the output of this property having shown up a large amount of ore of a high grade Bessemer quality has been advanced to $4.50. Superior mines they will make every effort to be one of the earliest and heaviest producers on the Mesaba. With a branch of the Duluth & Iron Range already surveyed the mine being only four miles from the main line) and the promise of that company to complete the work and furnish shipping facilities as soon as the mine is ready to ship, and with several hundred men at work, ore shown up it is safe to predict that the Mallman will make a good record this season.

The directors of the Bessemer company have elected officers as follows: J. H. Claypool, president; C. F. Hopkins, vice-president and manager; E. C. Jones, secretary; W. B. Silvey, treasurer. The company has a lease on eight forties as follows: W 1/2, SW 1/4, section 27, and 1/2 SW 1/4, SW 1/4, SE 1/4, SW 1/4, N 1/2, SE 1/4, section 28, 59-15. On these lands the company has a 30-year lease and has to pay a royalty of only 20 cents per ton, much better terms than the average lease. Work is to begin at once and some stock will go on the market in a few days.

Champion was listed today for the first time and sold readily at 10. For a new stock it is proving popular and has the advantage that only a small portion of it is going on.

THE MARKETS.
Dull Trading but the Market Rules Steady During the Day.

A dull market, which ruled steadily with advancing tendencies prevailed during the early hours today. May No. 1 northern gained from 3/8 to 3/4 in the forenoon. The increase of wheat in store is quite large and it is estimated that there will be from 12,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels at the opening of navigation. Exports of wheat from the United States continue fairly good. New York's receipts were 20,000 bushels, but no concern.

The flour market closed dull and steady at unchanged figures for cash and March No. 1 spring closed at 71 1/2. Cash No. 1, hard closed at 85c. Track wheat closed steady at 85c. Cash No. 1, hard ruled dull and closed at 83 1/2. Track wheat closed at 83c. Cash No. 2 northern ruled dull at 77c and eased to 76 1/2 at the close. No grade sold at 74c. Max O'Rell will visit Duluth for the first time tonight.

To Whom It May Concern.
Ladies and gentlemen, we, the colored people of Duluth, are trying to get a place of worship among us and find it impossible to do it alone, though we see the great need of one. We are often told of the error made by more than two years ago at the beginning of the work. We hope you will accept this method of our regret for the trouble (though we were not concerned neither are parties concerned in the city), and hope the dear people will forgive us for what was done and help us in this extreme time of need.

We have leading us Rev. Richmond Taylor, of St. Paul, who comes to us with the following recommendation: "To the superintendent of public schools, Fayette, Tenn., July 14, 1878. Dear sir:—The bearer of this, Richmond Taylor, was raised in our yard, being the son of our housemaid. From all that I know of him, I never knew anyone, white or black, of purer morals. He has been absent two years in Memphis at school, during which time I have heard nothing to his prejudice. He is devoted himself to learning and if not now as well qualified as he should be for a teacher, doubtless he soon will be. I believe he will now make an excellent teacher of rudimentary education. Respectfully, Geo. T. Taylor.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 3, 1877.
DEAR SIR: I send you the bearer, Richmond Taylor. He is a pupil in my school at Lee Wayne and a member of the Episcopal church at Mason Depot, Tenn. I think him a worthy young man. I do not know but he is too large for your choir, but he would like to attend your church while he remains in the city. Very respectfully, E. W. COOK, 204 Orleans street.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Sept. 6, 1890.
The bearer, Mr. Richmond Taylor, has been in the employ of the St. Paul Fire and Marine Insurance company's office for eight years and leaves us of his own choice.

He is faithful and honest and I have no doubt but any employing him will be found him. Truly, etc., C. H. BUELOW, President.

He also has certificates from the Iowa conference. This is a true statement of our present condition: A church in the west end paid for a floating debt of $50, a bonded debt on lot in the east end of $16,000 and $870 must be paid April 6, 1892.

NOMINATION GUESSES

The N. Y. Herald Predicts a Western Democrat; Cleveland and Hill Will Fail.

The Convention Will Give Hill 285, Cleveland 265, Western Man 350.

Boies Has the Best Show; It Must be a Silver Coinage Man.

New York, March 2.—The Herald presents a timely and highly interesting table showing what are at the present moment the presidential preferences of the democracy in the various states. The table has been carefully and accurately prepared on the supposition that 900 delegates will be admitted to the Chicago convention under the new apportionment. It is supported by interviews with well-posted democrats from each one of the states and territories on whose judgment the expressed probability as to how the respective delegates will vote are based. The table shows that Mr. Hill leads Mr. Cleveland but very little at the present time, and that the mass of the democracy is looking to the West for a man to lead them to victory. The figures are: Hill, 285; Cleveland, 265; Western man, 350.

An analysis of the table reveals that Mr. Cleveland seems to be the choice of 15 states. They are California, Connecticut, Delaware, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Ohio, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin. Twelve of these are republican and only three are democratic. Senator Hill is the choice in 10 states. They are Colorado, Florida, Idaho, Maryland, Mississippi, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina and Texas. Seven are democratic and three republican. This shows unmistakably that in the states where the democratic sentiment predominates Hill is stronger than Cleveland.

But the real choice of the democracy is shown in 16 states. They want a Western man and are: Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, North Carolina, North Dakota, Tennessee and Wyoming. Eight are democratic and eight republican. Their 350 delegates standing solid for a Western man and representing over one-third of the convention against the other two camps, it is divided, will probably have a great effect in shaping the convention's action. It will be noticed that the states which have been passed over are Alabama, Louisiana and Oregon. Their delegations at present are, it is said, likely to be divided between Hill and Cleveland.

With the sentiment so strong for a Western candidate the possibilities in that direction are worthy of note. It is significant that the West has so far presented four candidates—Governor Boies of Iowa; Gen. Palmer of Illinois; error Gray, of Indiana, and Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan. The strongest of these are Boies and Palmer, and of the two, Boies seems to have the lead. Palmer has openly declared against the free coinage of silver and it is said, likely to this will be to greatly neutralize his chances. A favorite ticket in the West would seem to be Boies, of Iowa, and Russell, of Massachusetts.

SEVEN KILLED.

Two Trains Come Together in Milwaukee With Fatal Results.

MILWAUKEE, March 2.—Seven Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul workmen lost their lives in a wreck in the Milwaukee yards this afternoon. The Watertown accommodation, bound for Milwaukee, and the shop employees' train from Merrill were running side by side on parallel tracks when the former dived through an open switch and struck the first car of the shop train, overturning it and the two following cars. The engine and baggage car of the accommodation train were thrown into the ditch, but the passenger coaches kept the rails and the passengers escaped with a violent shaking up.

Of the 10 workmen in the three overturned cars seven were killed instantly, one was seriously injured and 12 were so badly hurt that they had to be taken away in ambulances, though all of the latter will probably recover. The unfortunate in the first coach of the shop train had seen the impending danger and a rush was made for the windows. Seven were clambering out when the car was overturned on them and all were crushed and mangled almost beyond recognition. Their bodies were quickly taken out by the wrecking crew and conveyed to the morgue.

The accident was caused by the carelessness of a switching crew. William Bartels, the foreman, immediately gave himself up to the police. He says there is no excuse for the accident.

CHANGE IN CHILEAN MINISTRY.

The Conservatives Resign; The Rest Are Likely to Follow.

NEW YORK, March 2.—A Valparaiso dispatch to the Herald says Ministers Pereira and Blanco Viel have resigned from the cabinet and Carlos Walker Martinez has retired from the council of state. All three of the members of the conservative party have likewise left the council. It is generally believed that the other members of the cabinet will likewise surrender their portfolios. The coalition ministry, it would seem, under the present liberal regime cannot attain any solidity. It is said that the cause of the resignations was dissatisfaction with the proposals of Finance Minister Vergara to rehabilitate Chile's finances and raise her credit in the world's money markets.

Jay Gould Off for Texas.

ST. LOUIS, March 2.—Attached to a Pennsylvania line express which arrived here last evening was the private car of Jay Gould which left New York Monday morning with Gould and his party en route for the Southwest. Immediately upon arrival here a special was made up and the Gould party left for the Iron Mountain for Texas.

R. Jamison, of Minneapolis, arrived in Duluth this morning.

Accused of Disloyally Attacking the Emperor's Brandenburg Speech.

VIENNA, March 2.—Horrible details have been received of the condition of the starving people at Nemesitz in the county of Arva, Hungary. Many have died of hunger and privation and those who survive are feeding on roots and bark. Child beggars swarm everywhere, making pitiful appeals to travelers, while their pinched and pale faces show the suffering they endure. The death rate from famine is increasing and survivors are preparing to emigrate if they can to some district where they can obtain a livelihood.

STARVATION IN HUNGARY.

Horrible Accidents Resulted; Survivors Reported Favorably by the Physician.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—News from representative Springer's physician this morning is to the effect that the distinguished patient is better than he was yesterday.

In the senate an appropriation of $3000 was adopted for the expenses of the typhus fever and immigration investigation. Mr. Dolph introduced memorial in favor of government aid to the Nicaragua canal and took occasion to address the senate in regard to the great interest felt on the Pacific coast in the completion of this great work. At 12:30 the senate resumed the discussion of the Idaho case, Mr. George, of Mississippi, taking the floor in favor of the contestant Claggett.

The committee on education and labor reported favorably to the senate today a joint resolution directing the commission of labor to investigate the "slums" of cities of 200,000 inhabitants and over. The inquiry is to relate to the occupations, earnings, sanitary surroundings and other essential facts necessary to show the condition of residents of such localities. Twenty thousand dollars is appropriated for the investigation.

In the house Mr. McKee, of Arkansas, asked for consideration of a resolution directing the committee on public lands to examine the circumstances touching the leases of certain lands in the Yellowstone park by the secretary of the interior on or about March 20, 1889.

Mr. Buchanan, of New Jersey, objected as the resolution was not broad enough and it was referred. On motion of Mr. Brets, of Indiana, a resolution was adopted for information as to the quantity of land disposed of under the desert land act. Mr. B. Taylor, of Ohio, reported a bill from the committee on judiciary fining murder in the first and second degree and manslaughter and providing punishment therefor. House calendar.

Mr. Wisc, of Virginia, from the committee on commerce introduced a bill to make Council Bluffs, Iowa, a port of delivery, Calander.

Mr. Outwater, from the military affairs committee, reported a resolution providing for the appointment of Gen. W. J. Sewell, Gen. Martin T. McMahon, John L. Mitchell and Gen. B. B. Bonebrake as managers of the national homes for disabled soldiers for the terms commencing April 21, 1892.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the District of Columbia appropriation bill. The bill appropriates $4449,400.

Railroad Wreck.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., March 2.—The Royal Blue, Baltimore & Ohio, New York & St. Louis express was wrecked to miles east of here about 1 o'clock this morning caused by a broken axle. A 12:30 this morning train No. 601, drawn by engine 738 was wrecked one mile east of the depot. One of the passenger coaches and the sleeper, Hon Air was stove in. No one was seriously injured.

Secretary Foster Arrives at London.

LONDON, March 2.—Hon. Charles Foster, United States secretary of the treasury and party arrived here at 12:30 p. m. Dr. H. H. Hutton says Mr. Foster is in better condition than when he left Washington, though he is sadly in need of rest. Yesterday Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Foster explored the Spree from stem to stern under the guidance of the ship's director, paying particular attention to the quarters occupied by the emigrants and carefully examining the food served to them. Mr. Foster expressed satisfaction with what he had seen.

Labor Report.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 2.—The annual report of the state board of mediation and arbitration will soon be ready for the printer. It is well known that the strikes during the year 1891 were settled, a large number through the recommendation of the board. The strikes were mainly on the two accounts of wages and hours of labor.

Bering Sea Arbitrator.

LONDON, March 2.—It is reported that Mr. Ross, adjutant in British official marine insurance company, has been selected as arbitrator for Great Britain in the Bering sea dispute.

Murder in the First Degree.

LAMAR, Mo., March 2.—The jury in the trial of Amos Spry for the killing of James Miles, after a trial lasting five days, yesterday returned a verdict of murder in the first degree. The date of sentence has not yet been fixed.

Commutation of Death Sentence.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 2.—Charles Lloyd, who murdered the manager of Franks plantation in the cotton riots last autumn and who was to be hanged on March 7, was yesterday commuted to life imprisonment. Lloyd is a mere youth and was led on by older accomplices all of whom testified against him in the two accounts of wages and hours of labor.

AN AMERICAN'S SUDDEN DEATH

He Had American Gold, Notes, Etc., Which Are Missing.

COLON, Aspinwall, March 2.—Parties arriving here from Carthagena by the French Trans-Atlantic line steamer Versailles on her last voyage, state that shortly after the vessel left that port one of the passengers, an American named O. M. Wentworth, died suddenly and that his remains were thrown overboard some four hours before the latter port was made and without allowing any of the American or English passengers, of whom there were many on board, an opportunity of assisting at the last offices. It was understood among the English speaking passengers that Wentworth had a comparatively large amount of American gold and greenbacks in his possession, together with a quantity of Colombian silver, but the officers of the Versailles failed either to make a report of the man's death or turn over his effects to the American consul on the ship's arrival at this port.

STANDARD OIL DECISION.

The Companies Find the Trust a Convenience.

NEW YORK, March 2.—S. C. T. Dodd, solicitor for the Standard Oil trust, said last night that the Columbus decision was important one as being the first step toward breaking up the arrangement by which the stocks of the several Standard Oil companies in different states and in foreign countries were bound together in the trust agreement. This arrangement was a matter of business convenience. The decision, if followed in other states, would simply terminate this convenient arrangement. The stocks of the various companies would, of course, still be owned and controlled as at present. The decision had followed essentially the decision in this state against the sugar trust. It will be possible to abrogate the trust agreement and still carry on the business of the Standard Oil companies as it now is conducted. He was asked if it would not be possible to organize a corporation under the laws of New Jersey which might exercise the functions of the trust. He said he did not think the Standard companies could be advantageously merged into one large corporation.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

An Appalling Disaster on the Coast of Newfoundland.

HALIFAX, N. S., March 2.—A special to the Herald from St. John's, N. F., gives details of a terrible disaster in Newfoundland. At least 40 lives are lost. On Saturday 200 men went out sealing from the shore of Trinity bay. A terrible storm sprang up and the thermometer dropped to zero, the men could not reach their refuge and had no food with them. Some were blown to sea, others got onto the ice and perished from cold exposure, while others died in their boats.

Seventeen were rescued by boats, which went to their assistance from here and from the continent. Some of them died before they were taken ashore. Thirteen bodies were found frozen in their boats, which were covered with ice and had to be cut out. It was a ghastly piece of business. Ice steamers are still looking for missing men. Most of these who were lost were fathers of families. There is great lamentation along the shores of Trinity bay. The legislature has adjourned as a mark of sympathy.

RAILROAD COLLISION IN BRAZIL.

Fifty Persons Reported Killed; The Coffee Crop.

RIO JANEIRO, via Panama, March 2.—There was a serious collision of trains on the evening of the 23rd inst. on the San Francisco & Recife railway near Cuyambuca station. More than 50 persons, it is reported, were killed and a large number wounded.

The Sao Paulo railway lines are unable to move the coffee crop for lack of fuel, as, since the fever scare at Santos, coal carriers have refused charters for port from New Castle, Newport News and Pensacola, and the local deposits are already exhausted.

The state of Rio Grande do Sul is inviting tenders for building 350 kilometers of railway on the extension of the Poot Alegre and New Hamburg line.

Another Lynching Threatened.

SHERMAN, Texas, March 2.—William Smith's wife and two little boys were terribly beaten while in their beds Sunday night and the first two cannot recover. It is believed the deed was committed by a negro farm hand. The negro was arrested and blood was found on his clothing. The community is greatly excited and will probably lynch the negro.

For Popular Election of Senators.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 2.—In the assembly today the judiciary committee reported a concurrent resolution calling upon New York's representatives in congress to favor the bill providing for the election of United States senators by the people.

REMOVAL.

Owing to the rapid increase in his business Mr. Merritt has found his offices in the Palladio building were not of sufficient size, and he has secured the large and commodious offices in the Chamber of Commerce building, formerly occupied by the Motor Line Improvement company. It would be difficult to find a firm or individual engaged in the iron land business in Duluth who is better posted on the value of such property than Franklin W. Merritt, or who controls more desirable or valuable property. His knowledge is of especial value to those contemplating purchases of iron stocks. Visitors to the city are welcome to call at his office where he will give them all the information they desire.

THE COUNCIL CONVENES.

The Newly-Elected Members Take Their Seats For the First Time Last Night.

And the Official Life of the New Administration Is Now Well Under Way.

President Hugo and Vice-President Kennedy Are Re-elected Without Opposition.

Several gentlemen who yesterday were city fathers now write an "ex" before their names and the new council has met and organized. The meeting of the old council meeting was very short and for men about to be officially they did not seem to have any desire to postpone the funeral. The council after adjournment called to order adjourned without delay and Mr. Perry, the same kind of person and Mr. Lemieux, made place for J. C. Helm, A. S. Wilson, J. W. Nelson and Mr. Morris Thompson. Mr. Wilson was the only one not present to take his seat.

City Clerk Burke called the new council to order. A. C. Weiss was chosen temporary chairman. A permanent organization was then effected. It was a little difficult to do any thing as each member apparently thought he was best suited to fill the position of president and dropped in a little ballot for himself. All of the old members, that is, the result of the first ballot gave the following result: Dingwall 3, Kennedy 2, T. W. Hugo 1, N. F. Hugo 1, Cox 1, Sorenson 1, Long 1, Weiss 1.

On the second ballot there were some gains and losses, but the result was still badly scattered. On the third ballot T. W. Hugo received seven ballots and was then declared the unanimous choice of the council. Mr. Hugo responded thanks, telling the members how much he thanked them for the honor done him and expressing his confidence in the relations of himself and council and the executive would be as pleasant in the future as in the past. He presented Kennedy as the third term of the council. Mr. Hugo was elected on the second ballot, the election of a clerk and city attorney going over until next week, at which time Mayor d'Autremont will announce his appointments there. A message to the council and President Hugo will announce the make-up of his committee. Frank R. Smith, the winner of re-election and H. F. Greene will probably be elected city attorney. On some of the matters of importance there may be differences of opinion. If certain ones who are now being considered should receive appointments, it is said the republican majority in the city will refuse to confirm them and allow the republican to hold on to no successor can qualify without confirmation by the council.

A PERPETUAL BOXES

Is Offered to Manufacturers of Mesaba Iron in Duluth.

The benefits of the iron discovery on the making of money in stock speculation means, as has been said, that the seat of the iron working industry of the Northwest is to be here. Developments come every day more and more clearly that this is the case. Some people, however, have been accomplished. A contract has been made through the Merriots, by which it is agreed that any company in Duluth which will take and smelt iron ore shall have it at a price of 50 cents per ton, less the current price at Chicago less the cost of transportation from Duluth to the city, for a period of ten years. It is said that this is a very favorable one, one that will enable him to enter into an immediate competition with the older and better established houses in Chicago and the East. This is something remarkable even in these days of bonus giving. It is a perpetual bonus which increases with the amount of ore used and which will in the 10 years during the term of the agreement in force aggregate a very large amount for any one taking advantage of it.

MAX O'RELL.

He Opens the Second High School Lecture Course.

The lecture was crowded last night to hear Max O'Rell (Paul Bunyon) in his lecture, "America as Seen Through French Spectacles," it being the first of the second high school course.

The audience was kept in a happy mood throughout the hour and a half of the lecture. The speaker divided his lecture into two parts, the first being the American man who is not typical and the second the American woman who is typical. He related numerous experiences with individual Americans, both sexes, but he did not seem to be out of his own mind at the time. He was very complimentary to our people. The ladies, especially, were admired for their intellectual attractions and their want of affectation. The chief criticism on our American life was the same as Herbert Spencer and other visitors have made, that we live too fast and the speaker urged his hearers to live slower and longer, enjoying life with their loved ones as time fits by that made the evening a most delightful and instructive one.

It is hard to believe that Max O'Rell's experience is as hard as he would pretend for he greeted The Herald representative, who called on him this morning very kindly, and was willing to be interviewed. He has in private life the same keenness of mind and the same characteristics of gesture which mark him on the platform and talk in a very interesting and entertaining way. It was a little difficult to interview him, however, for he had in his lecture expressed very fully his opinions of America and Americans and his impressions of Duluth were confined entirely to the faculty of the Lyceum as seen from his window at the Spaulding.

As he has not yet been over the city, "I shall remain here until tomorrow and expect to drive about this afternoon. As you see, I am devoting the morning to going over the proofs of my new book, a not very pleasant task, very intelligent, very quick and very kind. I think the intellectual deficiency of them and the people of the East is largely imaginary. I do not see that the Eastern people have a great advantage. One of the best houses I ever had in this country in numbers and quality.

In an interview published yesterday Judge Thomas declared in substance that his remarks at the time of granting her divorce were fully justified by the evidence before him.

NOVEL LAW FOR RIOTS.

It is difficult for an outsider to get at the merits of the Indiana Car Strike. It began on Sunday morning. For a time it had all the usual features of a strikers' riot. "Scab" drivers were beaten, cars were stoned and finally overturned. The police did what they could, but to little practical purpose.

So far everything progressed in the good old-fashioned way. Morally the strikers may have been all right, but legally they were all wrong. Things went this way for a time when the strikers struck out something entirely new in the striking business. For some reason which does not appear, for the car company seems to be perfectly solvent, the strikers got a judge to appoint a receiver of the car company. The receiver got possession of a part of the property of the company. He promptly kicked out the "scabs" and restored the strikers. He then made demand of the rest of the company's property which the infatuated owners refused to give up.

To blunt the edge of the receiver's axe President Frenzel, of the car company, moved an appeal to a higher court, but was met with papers issued against him for contempt in refusing to give up possession of company property to the receiver, and the court held that he must "purge" himself of the contempt before he can appeal.

The case therefore seems to stand thus: The strikers are running the cars now in charge of a friendly receiver, the company has lost possession of its property and its president is lucky if he escapes jail for defying the law.

A more remarkable outcome of a riot we have never seen. We have read of the English coroner's jury who found, during a Catholic riot, that certain well disposed subjects of his majesty had been attacked and murdered by the police while lawfully pulling down a mass house, but the spectacle of a car company's president in limbo while the strikers are running his cars, has we think never been seen outside Indianapolis.

Dr. Fridthof Nansen proposes to reach the North Pole in a vessel so built that it cannot be crushed in the ice, by taking advantage of a movement in the frozen sea, which takes the form, as he believes, of a slow current setting in from the mouth of the Lena River in Siberia, east of the pole, and passing down the east coast of Greenland. He expects to start about January, 1893, and calculates that this queer voyage will take three or four years. His vessel is one of 250 tons, and is nearly finished. He is to have a crew of 12 men, and provisions for six years. In case he turns out all wrong about his arctic current, his only means of escape will be in a balloon he expects to take with him.

Greece is having a tempest in a teapot.
The old ministry after having been dismissed by the King returned to the chamber and asked for a vote of confidence which was given unanimously.
This, according to the usage of parliamentary governments, would entitle the ministry to a continuance of power.
The dismissal of such a ministry would seem to be unconstitutional, but the King is determined to dissolve the chamber and appeal to the people. Should he fail in the election he thus precipitates, the king will be in a very uncomfortable position.

A queer trial is pending in a London court. A man is prosecuted for black-mailing various members of the nobility. His plan seems to have been to write them letters, sign a woman's name, and then, if they were foolish enough to answer, to strike them for money. Earl Russell was one of the noblemen persecuted. The blackmailer had not only demanded money from him but had written letters accusing him of misconduct to the lady to whom the earl was engaged. Lord Russell swore in court that he had never met the writer of the letters. They are all supposed to be the work of the prisoner on trial.

The president and several directors of the Duluth & Winnipeg road will be in Duluth tonight, and those having the matter in charge should make the best use of the opportunity to arrange terminal matters in a way satisfactory to both the Winnipeg and the Mesaba. Let this question be settled without further delay, that the county may take such action as seems for its own greatest good.

So many St. Paul journalists have got into the Mesaba swim with the promise of becoming the biggest operators in the iron puddle that there is danger the Twin City papers will have to suspend temporarily or move to Duluth. Thus far, however, we have missed Alden J.

Bethen's charming burnisides, which would look so well on the president of a mining company.

A. J. SAWYER DEAD.

The death of A. J. Sawyer, which occurred this morning at his home in Minneapolis, removes a former Duluthian and one of the best-known men in the Northwest. He came to Duluth from New York over twenty years ago and removed to Minneapolis in 1887. When Duluth began to develop as a shipping point Mr. Sawyer turned his attention to the grain business in which he achieved the highest success. He was a man of the strictest integrity and had the fullest confidence of all who came in contact with him. In his death the Northwest loses one of its most sagacious business men, and the head of the lakes one who first recognized the importance of his position. Never before has a single week taken from Duluth two such important factors in her growth as A. J.
Sawyer and M. D. Harrison.

The following Washington dispatch appeared in yesterday's Minneapolis Journal:

It is strongly intimated that the American Steel Barge Company, of West Superior, and those interested in the wharves, are making a fight against the deep waterway project in the great lakes. These men are reported to believe that the wharves will inevitably supplant the deep draught vessels which ply between the head of the lakes and the foot of Lake Erie in the grain and ore trade, and to be anxious to secure the monopoly of that traffic. The present depth of the channel is sufficient for all their purposes and they are opposed to any further increase in the depth of the channel which would inure to the benefit of steel steamers, which have been built, and the heavier draught vessels which would be built in case a 26-foot channel from Duluth to Buffalo could be obtained.

The number of saloons in Brooklyn having been increased to 4000, or one to every 62 adult males, even the brewers recognize the fact that the business has been overdone. Their custom has been to start bar-tenders in saloons, and take chattel mortgages, with the understanding that only their beer shall be sold there. But more bar-tenders have started in under such auspices than can make a living. Hence even the Brooklyn excise board has plucked up the courage to pass a resolution declaring against any increase in the number of licenses during 1892.

The much agitated mining exchange has at last taken form, and the stock dealing will soon be on a solid basis. So many companies have been organized that some means of determining what stocks are fit to be put on the market is now imperative for the public good, and the exchange will serve this purpose.
The best men of the city are back of the enterprise, and the greatest care will be taken to keep the dealing within safe limits.

A communication from Dr. Robinson, of the department of Petersburg, Va., to the Minneapolis health department, states a remarkable fact. Dr.
Robinson gives the rate of mortality per thousand in that city at 14 for whites, while it is over 28 for negroes or more than double. The average rate in England is about 22½, while in Russia it is said to be 35. The low rate of mortality for whites shows, therefore, that it must be exceptional.

The lumber manufacturers of the country held a mass meeting at Washington, Tuesday, to protest against the passage of the bill introduced into congress by Mr. Ryan, of Nebraska, putting lumber on the free list. The Mississippi delegation expected did not arrive. A committee of five was appointed to ask the ways and means committee for a hearing in opposition to the bill.

The Ohio legislature is trying to contrive some legal, effective way of taxing the property of express, telegraph and telephone companies. They hope to add $350,000 to the taxes now paid by these companies. There are many difficulties in taxing property and business conducted in many states and yet owned and managed as a whole.

Expensive luxury as the law seems to the American citizen, it is cheaper here than at the home of our common law.
A Mrs. Large recently refused to pay her rent in London, claiming that the premises rented were not properly sewered. Her landlord sued her. She failed to defend, and he had judgment for $205 debt, and $350 costs.

Patrick Martin, of Bordenstown, N. J., was swindled out of $5000 last week by the gold brick game. A confederate, masquerading as an Indian, and another who pretended to be a United States assayer helped on the swindle. It is astonishing how these old tricks take in new dupes.

So far as we can judge from the telegraphic reports the charge against President Greenhut and Messrs. Gibson and Terrell, officers of the whisky trust, is that of tampering with members of the grand jury, and of attempting to prevent the finding of the indictment.

The Millie Gibson silver mine, Colorado, will divide $328,000 among its stockholders, this month, and expects to make an even larger dividend in April.
Such dividends exceed any ever before known in silver mining.

The Herald congratulates Judge Page Morris on his return to the practice of law. He ought not to have sacrificed himself on the bench. The partnership between him and D. H. Twomey began March 1.

The renomination of J. M. Martin for president of the village of West Duluth means that the boys will have a lively and interesting campaign. We wish them all much joy.

The tide is turning fast and the business quiet of last season is giving place to a most joyous activity. Duluth is the soldest city between the seas.

Come to think, perhaps it was Washington's luck rather than his misfortune to have no children.

Uncle Jerry's department can't lift mortals to the skies it hopes to draw water down.

The question now is whether it is the knight or the lady that wears the plumes.

The Gruenfeld Concert.

The Gruenfeld concert at Temple Opera on Saturday evening is an event of especial interest, as both the brothers are artists of more than a national reputation. Alfred Gruenfeld is the court pianist to the emperors of Germany and Austria; Heinrich Gruenfeld, court vio-loncellist to the emperor of Germany.
Their tour up to date has been one of repeated successes, confined to the principal cities of the East. Duluth has not been favored with many musical attractions this winter, so that this engagement will be doubly welcome.

A Lumberman's Rendezvous.
This term might be applied to Stevens Point, located on the Wisconsin Central
lines, at the gateway to the vast forest
region which extends North to Lake Superior, a distance of 200 miles without a break, on account of its vast lumber in-
the lumbermen have given the familiar
and somewhat affectionate title of "Old Wiscon," not alone acts as a lumber feeder to the city by furnishing through its numerous tributaries an outlet for thousands of acres of pine in the upper
country, but it furnishes a water power
that is second only to that of Neenah
and Menasha, which cities are also located on the "Central." Millions of feet
of lumber are cut every year, giving employment to hundreds of men. In addition to the lumber trade, it has numerous other manufactures; it is here where the large car shops of the Wisconsin Central lines are located.

A. J. SAWYER DIES TODAY

The Big Grain Man of the Northwest Passes Away at His Minneapolis Home.

After a Short Illness of Stomach Troubles, He Succumbs at 5 o'clock This Morning.

First President of the Duluth Board of Trade and, While Here, Its Heaviest Operator.

Private dispatches from Minneapolis were the first to inform Duluthians that A. J. Sawyer died at his home in that city at 5 o'clock this morning.

For some time his health has not been very good, and his recent efforts at Washington in opposition to the option bill seem to have aggravated his stomach troubles, for soon after his return he was confined to his bed. Few in Duluth knew of his serious illness, and the announcement of his death was a great shock to his many friends.

The board of trade, of which he was the first president, held a meeting this forenoon, at which resolutions of respect were adopted and a committee appointed to attend the funeral.

Mr. Sawyer was about 60 years of age and came to Duluth from Gosport, N. Y., in 1870. He was then in humble circumstances like most of the early settlers here, but was just as happy in those days of pioneer simplicity as any fortune could make him since.

He soon engaged in the grocery business, forming a partnership with W. W. Davis, now of the board of public works, having a little store on the site of the present board of trade. Later when Duluth became a shipping point, they turned their attention to the grain business, and Mr. Sawyer was prominently identified with the organization of the board of trade 10 years ago. From the first he was very successful and has been one of the largest handlers of actual grain in the country. He was connected with the North Dakota Elevator company, the Jamestown & Northern Elevator company, and the Duluth Elevator company, with warehouses at Superior.

His wife and one son, Bert, survive him. His only other child, an older son, Fred, died about 10 years ago. The funeral arrangements are not yet made.

The character of Mr. Sawyer is well set forth in the following from the Northwestern Miller, of Minneapolis, in its comments of Feb. 12 upon the fight against the Washburn bill:

"One man there was of those who opposed the bill who could confidently be counted upon to possess what are popularly termed 'staying qualities.' Mr. A. J. Sawyer is indeed a gentleman of strong mind and determined convictions. Those who knew him were aware that, once aroused, he would fight to the bitter end; that he possessed both mind and will and would never recede from his position and that if the measure was to be defeated by consistent fighting, Mr. Sawyer was the man to do it. To say that he rose to the occasion is expressing it mildly. He towered above it. For the rest, his supporters, as a general thing, were men whose opinions are quickly formed and easily changed. Few of them possessed minds capable of grasping anything beyond the details of a narrow business life, and, while they joined in the clamor against the bill, it was quite certain that the next wind which came from another quarter would turn them about like mere weather vane. They played rather a feeble chorus to Mr. Sawyer's tremendous and forcible solo."

Thomas Moore has returned from St. Paul.

Mrs. H. F. Williamson returned yesterday from St. Paul.

Mrs. V. W. Hartman has gone East for a few weeks' business trip.

Miss Kate Hardy, who has been in Chicago, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Salter, of Grand Forks, N. D., are visiting with Mrs. Salter's parents in Duluth.

W. P. Lardner, who has been visiting at his old home in Niles, Mich., is again at his place in the Security bank.

Mr. G. C. Steele, of Smith, Farwell & Steele, received the sad news last evening of the sudden death of his father at Haverhill. Mr. Steele and family departed for that place last evening over the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic, to be absent several weeks.

Owing to the rapid increase in his business Mr. Merritt has found his offices in the Palladio building were not of sufficient size, and he has secured the large and commodious offices in the Chamber of Commerce building formerly occupied by the Motor Line Improvement company. It would be difficult to find a firm or individual engaged in the iron land business in Duluth who is better posted on the value of such property than Franklin W. Merritt, or who controls more desirable or valuable property. His knowledge is of especial value to those contemplating purchases of iron stocks. Visitors to the city are welcome to call at his office where he will give them all the information they desire.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a waste of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."

Charles Mayer, D.D., New York City.

Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

EDWIN F. PARKER, M. D., "The Winthrop," 115th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.
